

3 CENTS AN HOUR

Teachers request Living cost bonus, Deferred until Jan.

Teachers in the Newmarket public schools have asked for a cost of living raise in salary which, they said, would be equivalent to a three-cent an hour increase. The request was made at a recent meeting of teachers' representatives and the trustee-staff relationship committee of the school board. At a meeting of the full board last Friday night, it was decided to make a recommendation for the 1951 board to review salaries and cost of living in January.

Herbert Atkins, chairman of the trustee-staff relations committee reported that the teachers were asking for a straight salary increase since the cost of living index went from 164 to 169 between May and September. He said that teachers had had an increase of $100 in May.

"The teachers said they were quite satisfied with their increase last May but the recent request was to offset the increase in living costs since then," he said. Some members of the staff had reported a rise in the cost of room and board. "Staff members said they realized an increase would not take effect before the end of the year since the 1950 budget cannot be changed," he said. "They ask that the increase be effective from January 1, 1951."

"There are not many places where people get a $100 raise and then ask for another one," said Mrs. C. A. Curtis, member of the board.

"But the purpose of the raise in May was to create better pension benefits," said J. L. R. Bell. "This recent request for a cost of living increase is something else besides. I think an increase in living costs would be justified. I don't blame anyone asking for an increase in pay if he can get it. But I don't know how we can afford to give it," he said. "Is it right that we should obligate next year's board?" asked the chairman, Mrs. M. B. Seldon. "The best thing we can do is leave a recommendation for a discussion in January by next year's board."

The board passed a motion by Ken Morton and Mr. Bell that the cost of living index be reviewed in January and that the necessity of a cost of living bonus be considered by the new board.

Council discovers Not at top of list For court revenues

Members of Newmarket council were surprised to hear that it did not receive the largest income from revenues out of court fines. The magistrate's court held in Newmarket every week deals with cases from several district municipalities including Sutton, Aurora, North Gwillimbury and most of the surrounding townships.

Councillor Tom Birrell compared figures with these towns showing Newmarket's share at $534, Sutton $700, Aurora $500 and North Gwillimbury $200.

Mayor Joseph Vale pointed out that there could be fewer offenses committed in Newmarket or that other municipalities have a stronger enforcement.

It was pointed out in council that Newmarket was supplying the building for the court and yet there was less revenue coming to Newmarket than Sutton. "Why shouldn't we get a percentage from revenues going to other towns when they were actually collected in our building?" asked Mr. Birrell.

"Court expenses are always paid in proportion to fines, though," Mayor Vale pointed out.

Hospital services increasing, More patients, statistics show

Statistics show that each year more people require the services of York County hospital. Up to the end of September, 2,202 patients had been admitted to the hospital, 153 more than during the same period in 1949.

In September there were 102 surgical cases, 17 of them in the accident ward, 26 major operations and 59 minor operations. The total admission in September was 359.

Births are still ahead compared to last year's statistics. In September there were 66 compared to 59 in the same month last year.

Official civic opening Of new school Nov. 2, 3

The new Prince Charles school, Newmarket's fourth public school, will have its official civic opening on Thursday evening, Nov. 2. On Friday, Nov. 3, it will be open for public inspection.

Clarence Routley, assistant superintendent of elementary education for Ontario, will be the guest speaker at the civic opening on the first night. There will be a symbolic opening ceremony with the mayor of Newmarket, the school board, teachers and students of the public schools.

Board delays sodding On new school grounds Until next year

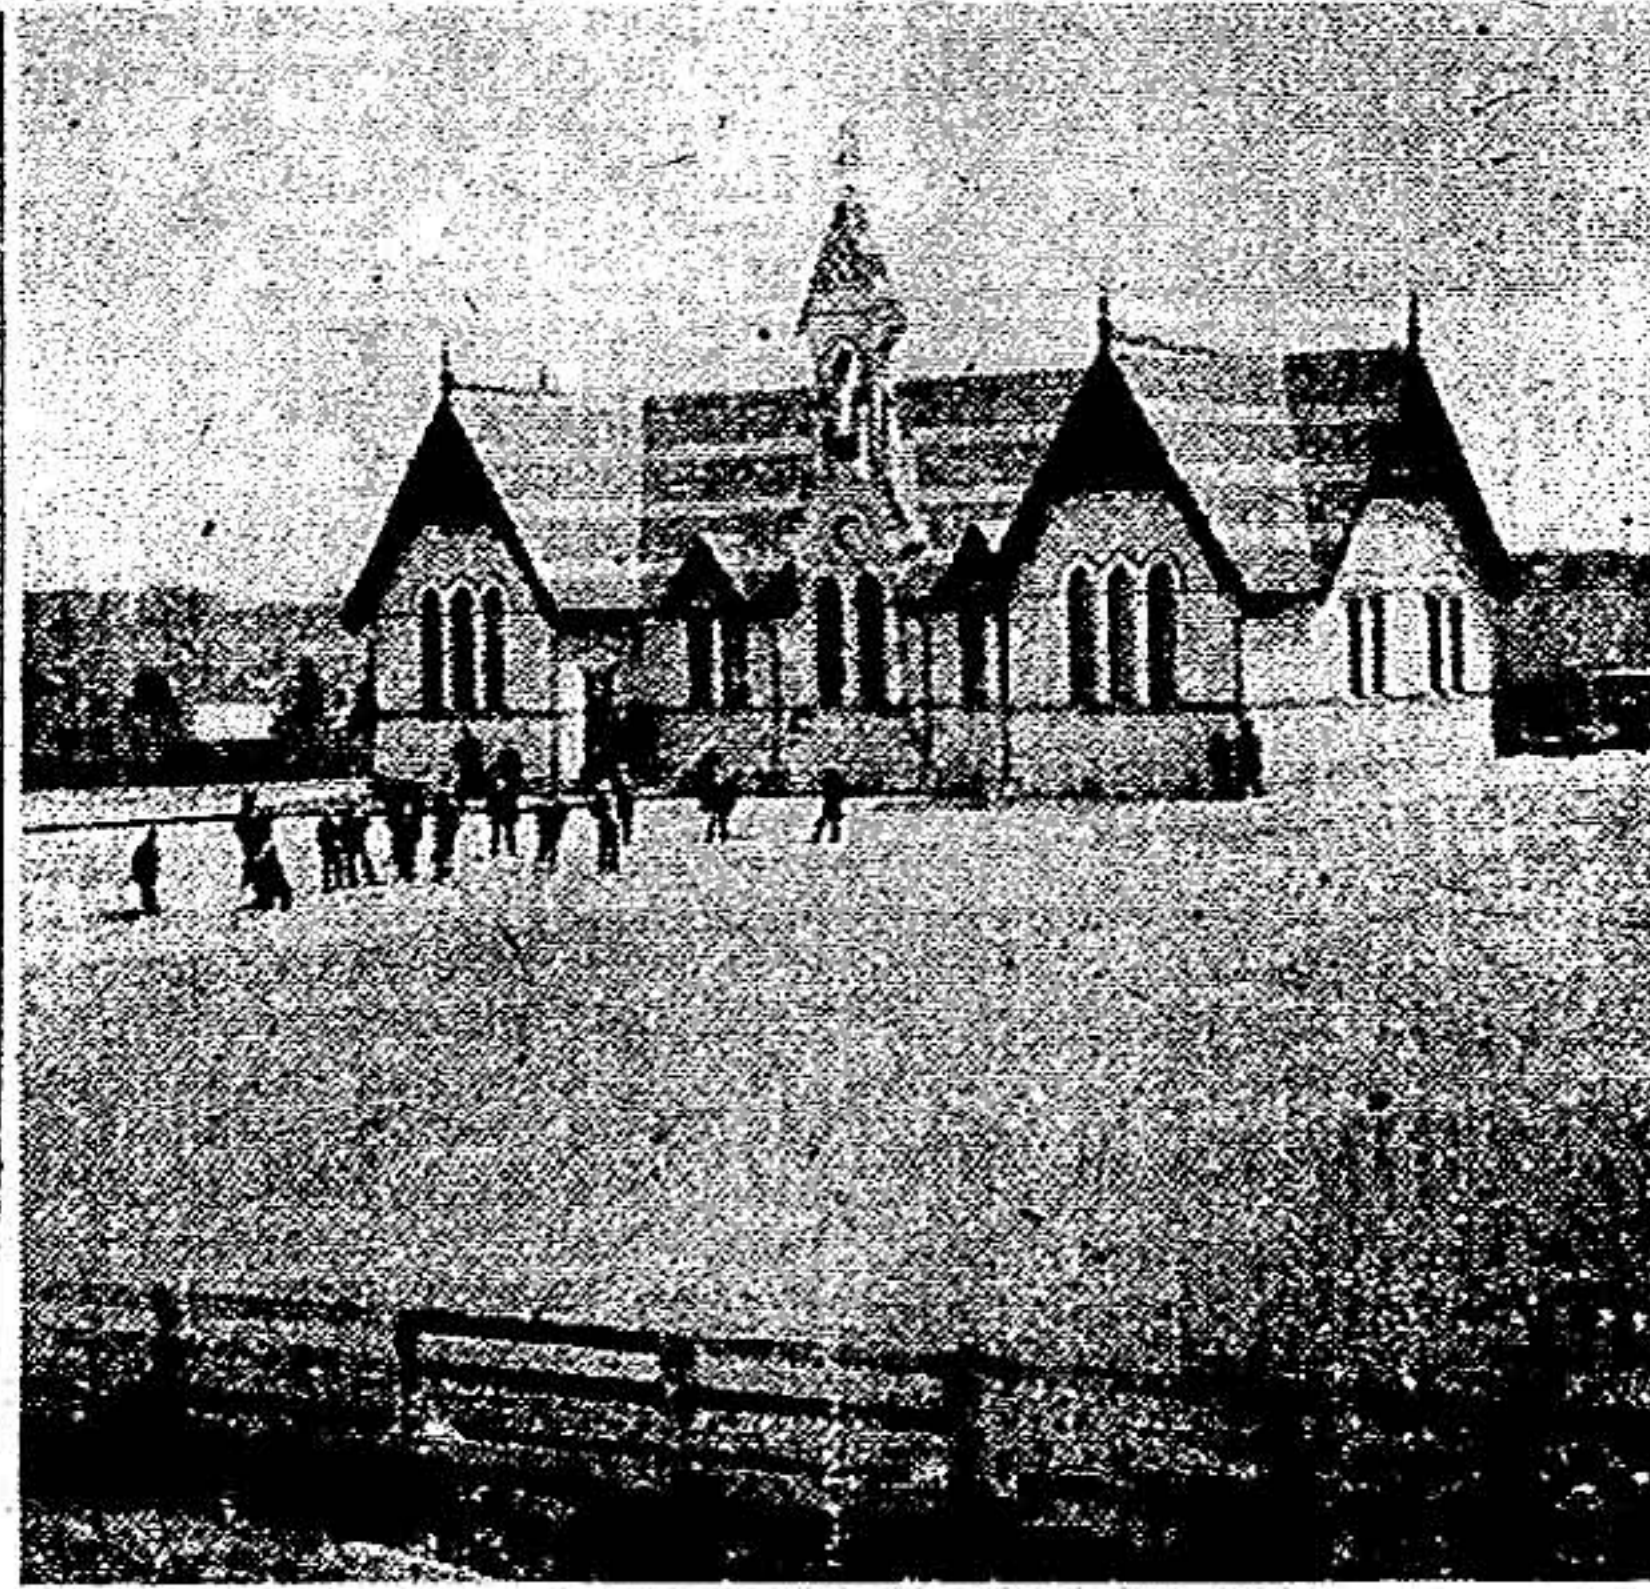

The sodding of the grounds at the new Prince Charles school will be left over until next spring. The Newmarket public school board decided at a meeting Friday night that it would not spend any more money this year since the budget has had all it can take. It had been estimated that the cost of sodding would be near $1,500 if some topsoil were used under the sod in places where it would be needed.

Members of the board J. L. R. Bell and Herbert Atkins pointed out that the greatest need for sod was on the banks at the south of the school. Levelling of a new playing field on the southern slope this summer created a long bank along the north side of the field and if sodding were left too long rains would cause erosion, they said.

Hit by delivery truck, Child dies in hospital

Roger Bradley, age 8 1-2, died in York County hospital Wednesday following an accident Tuesday morning. Roger was late for school and ran across Yonge Street from his home at Jefferson into the path of a light delivery truck driven south by Grant Robinson, 139 Prospect St., Newmarket. The driver had no opportunity of avoiding the child who ran in front of a standing school bus which was taking on passengers at the time.

There will be no inquest. Roger was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bradley, Jefferson.

This picture of Newmarket's first high school is believed to have been taken about 1880. While workmen were excavating for the new vocational wing at the present high school building this week, they discovered the foundation for the back wall of the old high school building. Construction of the footings for the new wing has been set back two days in order to clear away the old wall which had not been discovered previously below the surface of the ground. The original high school was destroyed by fire.

'Binocular vision' painting A feature of Pickering exhibit

Several examples of "binocular vision" will be in an exhibit of painting and mobile sculpture at Pickering College next month. During the first two weeks of November work of Harold Haydon, Associate Professor of Art in the College of the University of Chicago will be on public display in the Pickering assembly hall.

The examples of binocular vision make up one of several interesting features in the retrospective exhibit which will include some of the work Haydon did when he was resident artist at Pickering College 1933-34. While at Pickering the artist made a painting of what can be seen with one eye, including the nose. Later he began painting what is seen with two eyes when both are used equally, as in normal vision.

The form of optical realism results in a complex pattern of overlapping images at the point of focus of the eyes. So far as is known, this is the first time such a thing has been done and this exhibition is the first showing in Canada of binocular vision painting.

Polyplane painting and mobile sculpture will be other features of the exhibit. The assembly hall is expected to be open November 5, 6 and 7 and from November 11 to 15 inclusive.

While he was resident artist at Pickering College, Harold Haydon painted a large mural covering most of the east wall of the gymnasium which is familiar to many persons in Newmarket.

Foresee third war In Europe: Rev. Rawson

"The people of Europe believe there will be a third world war," said Capt. the Rev. Norman Rawson addressing the annual dinner of the North York Young Progressive Conservative Association held at Graystones Saturday evening. "We must be prepared for a further increased taxation to defend our land," continued the speaker. Capt. Rawson said that we have failed to realize the conditions that brought about socialism in England.

Recently on his tour of the Old Country the speaker found that socialism was the imperfect answer to the prime need. The election of officers took place at an afternoon session. Officers elected: pres., Sinclair Stevens, Kleinburg; 1st vice, Bob Parker, Jackson's Point; 2nd vice, Florence Reeves, Woodbridge; 4th vice, Brooke Patterson, Aurora; corresponding sec., Mary Bowman, Aurora; recording sec., Percy Richmond, Keswick; treas., Lorne Gibney, Newmarket; auditors, Bill Stephens and L. Maughan, Aurora. Second vice president to be selected later.

APPROVE NEW LIGHTS

The Newmarket town council approved of new street lighting for Lowell Ave. at a meeting Monday night. Four new 100-watt lamps and four 60-watt lamps will replace the old lights. At a previous meeting council received complaints through a delegation from Lowell Ave. residents. They attributed minor injuries to persons traveling the street at night to inadequate lighting.

AURORA APPLE DAY

The Scouts and Cubs of Aurora are holding their Apple Day on Saturday, Oct. 21. It is the only appeal for funds the boys make and a warm public reception is urged. There are 40 boys enrolled in the Scout troop, 31 in the Cub pack. Scoutmaster is Al Hooper, and Cubmistress is Jane Hodgkinson, assisted by Margaret Brooks.

Court of revision sits Thursday, Nov. 2

The court of revision to hear appeals on Newmarket assessments will sit on Thursday, November 2 at 7:30 p.m.

Mayor Joseph Vale appointed five members of council Monday night to comprise a court. They are Reeve A. D. Evans and councillors Renzius, VanZant, Paynter and Birrell.

WORK UNCOVERS FOUNDATION OF FIRST SCHOOL

Part of Newmarket's first high school which was destroyed by fire many years ago interrupted progress on a new high school wing this week. Workmen have been busy pouring the footings for the new two storey wing at the north-east corner of Newmarket high school which will provide for shop training, domestic science and agricultural studies.

While excavation was progressing rapidly earlier in the week for the basement, workmen came upon a well built stone foundation below the surface of the ground. It is believed to be part of the original high school's foundation.

Although the discovery has a historical interest it set workmen two days behind in pouring the footings. The wall, about three feet high extended for seven feet into the area which was being excavated and required many working hours to be removed. Workmen claim that there is evidence that one section of the wall runs, below the surface, for some distance parallel to the rear wall of the present building. It is several yards east of the present high school. Much of the ground behind the high school consists of old fill which contains pieces of concrete, stone and old re-enforcements, evidence of the destruction of the old building.

The new wing is being constructed by the James Kemp Construction Co. It is expected to be completed next spring.

Resume craft classes At Aurora Saturday

Handicraft classes under the auspices of the Aurora Recreation Commission will resume Saturday morning in the east room behind the fire hall. The class hours will be from 10 a.m. to noon for children from 6 to 12 years of age. Greater effort will be made this season to enlarge on both the junior and adult programs.

Two new groups in the craft section have been proposed, one for instruction in home beautification and one in re-modelling hats. Dates for the organization of these groups will be announced later. Anyone, adult or child, interested in a craft course should contact Mrs. R. L. Stavert at the Fire Hall room Saturday morning.

PLAY AT FAIR

The Aurora Lions boys band played at the recent Woodbridge Fair.

A meeting of the merchants will be held after the Lions Club meeting on Monday night in St. Paul's Parish hall when a report on Trade Fair plans will be made, and a Santa Claus parade and other projects will be discussed.

3-year-old hit by bus, Home from hospital

Geraldine Ann Conklin, three, is now home from York County hospital after being shaken up in an accident on Tuesday morning. Geraldine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conklin, 24 Prospect St., ran out in front of a school bus at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The bus which hit the child was carrying students to Newmarket high school. She was admitted to York County hospital for treatment. Dr. John Dales attended.

Community mourns loss Of leukemia victim

William (Billy) Harold Broderick, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Broderick, lost his fight against the disease which was wasting his blood, and died last Wednesday in Sick Children's hospital.

Billy had been suffering from leukemia for over a year. In that time, every effort was made to cure the boy. New drugs were used and blood transfusions given. The efforts of the doctors were able to keep him alive longer than is usual but in the end, the disease proved too much. Billy's fight for life attracted wide attention and friends all over Canada pulled for him to come through.

The people of Mount Albert well are united in their sympathy for the loss of a brave struggle. Funeral service was held in the family home on Friday and interment was made in Mount Albert cemetery. Rev. C. P. Shapler conducted the service.

Bruce Phillips, manager of the Newmarket branch of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., has been appointed sales manager for White Sewing Machines at Tom Burke's Dry Goods. He is assisted by Mrs. Doris Higgins as demonstrator.

Building by-law Gets top priority Before council

A new building by-law for Newmarket is to get top priority at council's next meeting Monday night. The by-law which has now been drafted and constitutes an hour's reading matter is in the hands of members of council now. Such a by-law to govern the standards of all construction in the town has been under consideration for the last year and a half. It was left with a committee headed by Charles VanZant who has been working on suitable provisions for construction standards in Newmarket.

Dramatic club's first Open meeting of season Sees play preview

The Newmarket Dramatic club held its first general meeting of the season which was open to the public on Tuesday night at the town hall. Forty people attended the meeting and saw the partially completed set for the club's forthcoming play November 2, 3 and 4, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads." Some of the actors staged a short preview for the audience.

Fred Hagan gave an informal talk on techniques used in building up a set and scenery. The progress of the construction was revealed on stage where a backdrop and several units are being painted.

The director of the old time melodrama, Mike McMorro, commented on the play after the audience saw the preview.

AURORA PAPER SALVAGE

The Aurora branch of the Canadian Legion is conducting a paper salvage drive on Saturday, Nov. 4. Householders are urged to save their old papers, magazines and cardboard containers. The salvage will be collected from the curb by truck.

It is expected that council will spend an entire meeting reviewing the by-law before it is passed.

Disapprove of policy For maintenance On Aurora streets

Criticism of the streets committee and the town superintendent was voiced by members of the Aurora town council Monday. It was pointed out that work which had been approved by council early in the spring had not been carried out. "Workmen go around dropping dirt into holes to fill them up, and after two or three cars have gone over the road, they are no better than they were," said Councillor James Murray.

"I'd rather see two streets done properly than the way they are being done all over town at present," he added.

Councillor Davies asserted that instead of putting a proper mixture in holes on the streets workmen were filling them with dirt which is washed away with the first rainfall.

"I'm not paid to run around after the foreman and see that the job is done properly," said Deputy-Reeve Harry Corner, chairman of the streets committee.

"We need a town manager to see that things get done," said Councillor Corbett. "The men are working all the time now and are not getting anywhere because of bad management and bad planning. The set-up is wrong somewhere," he said. A motion to give the water works foreman the responsibility for which he was engaged in the spring was introduced by Councillor Corbett and seconded by Councillor Murray, but was tabled until the personnel committee interviewed the employees.

Reeve A. Cook in supporting the suggestion for a town manager said that Aurora, during its present growth was comparable to an expanding industry which could not be run without a "boss." "This discussion isn't going to settle things," said Councillor Murray, "but it will shake things up. At least there may be more co-operation in the future."

Action was taken on a recommendation from the arena committee to apply for the $5,000 grant awarded by the Ontario government for recreational centres.

Fire Chief Harry Jones will be requested to attend the Fire Chiefs' Training course being conducted for two days under the direction of the Ontario Fire Marshall's Department at the University of Toronto. Payment of his expenses was approved by council.

Council authorized the purchase of the heating equipment in the Mechanics' Hall when it is vacated, from Aurora Textiles Ltd. for the sum of $1,800.

Deputy-Reeve Harry Corner protested about the population figures on signs at both ends of town. The clerk informed him these signs are the property of the Department of Highways and are usually changed annually when the assessment roll is announced.

Shirley Andrews to skate here In International Revue, Oct. 27

The International Ice Revue plays at the Newmarket Arena a week from Friday, Oct. 27 for one performance only. Featured in the review is Eileen Seigh with her partner Jerry Rehtfeld who starred in a similar role last year with Barbara Ann Scott. Shirley Andrews of Newmarket who joined the show last winter will appear in the Review here.

Eileen Seigh and her company of 50 skaters will perform a 15 act show and Miss Seigh will star in four major acts. Other featured skaters are Bob and Peggy White an adagio team, comedy stars Eddie Brandstetter, Leonard Furner and Johnny Fia-nagan. The still skating of Nick Dantos provides plenty of variety. The talents of Bobby DuRay, a tumbler will be displayed and the DeWitt twins a pair duo from Regina. One of the features is a score of Grahwin music under the direction of Conductor Eddie Achland. The International Ice Revue is produced and directed by Dorothy Littlefield of Chicago. Activities started at the arena after the first ice was made over last weekend. The week started with some hockey practices and the first public skating night was on Wednesday.

WALLY KOSTER

NORMA LOCKE

MART KENNEY

Mart Kenney, topnotch Canadian bandleader, is shown here with two of the feature performers, Norma Locke and Wally Koster, who will appear with the band when it plays at the North Gwillimbury Memorial Arena at Keswick on Saturday, Oct. 21. The dance is under the sponsorship of the Keswick Optimist club and proceeds will be used to assist the club carry on its public service work.

NO BE-BOPPER HEI

Mart Kenney's orchestra Includes oboe, french horn

It's doubtful that the new music known as "be-bop" will ever merge with opera into a form known as "be-bopera", but it is true that popular dance music is becoming ever more classical in form.

The point is proven by Mart Kenney, whose orchestra plays at the North Gwillimbury Memorial Hall, Keswick, on Saturday, Oct. 21. Kenney began at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto to include in his dance band bass clarinet, oboe and French horn. To broadcast Borden's Canadian Cavalcade over the CBC Trans-Canada network, he augmented his orchestra by three violins, viola, cello and sometimes even a harp.

Anybody who says a single orchestra doesn't prove the rule should be shown that the Kenney orchestra has played almost 1,000 nights of dance music in the Royal York, largest hotel in the British Empire, and that rising listener-survey ratings made Canadian Cavalcade top Canadian nighttime musical show after Kenney joined it in September, 1947.

As Mart Kenney explains it himself: "There are two sides to Tin Pan Alley—swing and sweet. I'm chiefly concerned with trying to avoid either extreme; to serve out old songs or new in a way that will have equal appeal for all members of the average family."

Kenney measures his success by two yardsticks—applause and reviews. The late Dr. Lawrence Mason, music critic of the Toronto Globe and Mail, went to hear only one dance band in his life and that was Mart Kenney's. In his pontifical style, Dr. Mason said: "He seems to aim a smoothness of blend and balance, with perfectly homogeneous tone throughout. . . . With continual shifting of the instrumentation, seemingly less than half a dozen bars are played without changing some of the instruments to secure new color values, but without losing a note or breaking a phrase." Most reviews are more enthusiastic but Dr. Mason's is the only one that Mart keeps and treasures.

Keswick News

The lovely lunch was enjoyed by all and arrangements were made for the November meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Crittenden on November 14.

Marcia Sinclair wins Fire essay contest

Marcia Sinclair, grade seven student at Stuart Scott school, was awarded first prize in the fire prevention week essay contest sponsored by the fire committee of the Newmarket council. The contest was open to students in the elementary schools. Its purpose was to familiarize children with fire prevention precautions.

Charles VanZant was chairman of the committee.

Winners in the other schools were: Betty Daly, St. John's; Don Jackson, Prince Charles; Fayu Russell, King George; and Harry Babcock, Alexander Muir. The winners in each school won $5 and Marcia Sinclair won an extra $5 for her first prize essay.

The following is the first prize essay:

FIRE PREVENTION
By MARCIA SINCLAIR
Grade 7, Stuart Scott School

Our community becomes an ideal place in which to live only when each citizen takes an active interest. Citizens of Newmarket, this is Fire Prevention Week. Yes, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure".

Our work as ordinary citizens is to prevent fires. Great advances have been made in most cities in the means adopted for preventing fires and the loss of life that often accompanies them. All tall or large buildings are compelled to have fire escapes; and an increasing number of new buildings are of fireproof construction with stone stairways, and very little wood about them.

The leading cause of fire in homes is matches and smoking. Nearly a third of all fires is started because someone left a cigarette lying on a table or smoked it in bed or did any number of careless things with it.

Halloween will be here soon. If you plan to drape yourself in a sheet, do not carry a lighted Jack-o'-lantern. Special care should also be taken around Christmas time, for then there is added danger of accidents from electrical materials and of fires from lighted Christmas trees and other holiday decorations. Precaution against fire is also neces-

Black and White show Believed largest in Ont.

The 1950 York County Black and White Show held at Markham Fair not only established a record for the county but, it is believed, for the province in the large entry of 174 head entered by 25 exhibitors, seven of whom were showing for the first time. Judge Durno Innes of Woodstock was kept busy from 10.30 till 5 o'clock by the exhibitors who had the cattle for the next class ready as soon as the ribbons were placed. Fieldman Roy Ormiston of Brooklin acted as ringmaster, assisting secretary Roy Barker of Woodbridge.

President, Jas. Darlington, of Maple, who incidentally is the second generation in that office, was pleased not only with the exhibit but the new permanent ring which had been built for the occasion.

The junior champion bull, Elchee Sovereign Supreme shown by H. C. McCloskey of Queensville, won the grand champion-Remco Texal Sovereign, owned by Geo. S. Henry, Geo. C. Jackson and Whittaker Bros.

In the female championship, Thos. McGriskin of Unionville carried off the senior and grand rosettes on his aged cow Segis Totilla Rag Apple. Chapman Bros. of Weston won the junior championship on their senior yearling heifer Locust Brae Jean. Some of the larger classes were dry two year old heifers—20 entries, senior yearling heifers—19 entries, junior yearling heifers—19 entries, senior heifer calf—17 entries, junior heifer calf—25 entries. This latter large class, was won by Bill Taylor Jr. of Sharon with his calf club calf and his brother's calf was third. The top prize winners are showing this week in the District Championship Show at Peterboro.

sary around the 24th of May, since that date brings out the blaze of firecrackers, dangerous to life as well as to property. All big fires come from small beginnings. Campers go to the woods to enjoy themselves, yet "don't stop to think that by throwing down a lighted match or cigarette or cigar not quite extinguished, they may destroy the forest in which, at that moment, they are enjoying change and recreation.

Forest Fires

"Only a man in a forest green,
Only a match that was dropped unseen,
Only a flame, some leaves and wood—
And only a waste where a forest once stood."

If a fire gets out of control, remember we in Newmarket have an efficient fire brigade. Always tell your baby-sitter where she can reach you, how to phone the fire base and in case of fire, to get your children out first and then telephone for help.

Whitchurch to meet Extra night a month

Following the lead of numerous other municipalities experiencing an ever-increasing volume of problems, Clerk John Crawford advised Whitchurch township council at its meeting on Saturday that he felt the time had come to set a regular time for an extra council meeting each month. He stated these long sessions they now held were exhausting, and felt breaking it up into two regular sessions would relieve this somewhat, and it would often save arranging a suitable time at which all the council could meet to cope with some special situation. On motion of Councillors Legge and Timbura a resolution was carried that having regard for the increased business before them, the council meet in regular session on the fourth Thursday evening of each month at 8 o'clock.

PLEASANTVILLE

Quite a number from here attended the plowing match at Alliston.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hopkins visited in Toronto on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walters of Bracebridge had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Davidson.

Mr. Geo. Fairbairn is working at his new home at Belhaven.

Please keep in mind Sunday school at 2 p.m., church service 3 p.m. D.S.T. for a short time yet.

KETTLEBY

Sunday, Oct. 15, was observed as "Youth Sunday" in all Anglican churches throughout the Dominion. In Christ church, several members of the Sunday school sang two hymns. It was very pleasant to hear those sweet young voices raised in praise to God.

Dr. Edwin Abbott, his wife and family, have safely arrived in Belfast, Ireland where he has gone to take further studies in surgery. We were all glad to hear of their safe arrival.

A beautiful cyclamen plant was sent to Mrs. Reynolds, one of the members, by Christ church Ladies' Guild. We all wish her a speedy recovery from her sickness.

"Sunday School of the Air" is back again over C.F.R.B. at 9.45 a.m. D.S.T. This is a program well worth listening to by all the family.

Services next Sunday at Christ church will be Evening Service 3 p.m. Sunday school 2 p.m.

Teachers' president
At Queensville meeting

The North York public school teachers met at the Queensville public school October 6 to elect officers for the current school year. The past president, Miss Wyand, acted as installing officer. The following officers were installed: hon. pres., Mr. O. M.
MacKillop, B.A., B. Paed.; pres.,
Neil H. Anderson; sec.-treas.,
Dora I. Cheateley; pianist, Lillian Lightfoot.

Following the election of officers, Mr. MacKillop introduced the speaker, Dr. King, M.O.H., York County Health Unit. Dr.
King gave an interesting account of the formation and work of the health unit in so far as the school was concerned. This was followed by vocal selections accompanied by Mrs. Angus Cowleson.

Miss Wyand explained some details of the preliminary oratorical contest to be held October 23 in Aurora. It was decided that the next meeting would be held in the Ravenshoe public school December 1 at 1.30 p.m.

Mr. MacKillop addressed the teachers for several minutes after which he introduced Mr.
Code, assistant inspector for York
No. 1 district. Mr. Code spoke briefly, expressing pleasure at having been appointed assistant inspector for this district and describing the new social study curriculum. The teachers of Queensville public school served a delightful lunch and a social half-hour was enjoyed by all.

York Guernseys high In Canadian Records

York County Guernsey breeders continue to make outstanding records. Recently reported by the Canadian Guernsey Breeders' Association at Guelph are two honor roll records made by a two-year-old heifer in the same year and at the same time. This heifer is Donnelly Northern Poly owned by W. C. Harris, King Creek Farm, King. Polly placed first in the honor roll in the 305 day division on twice a day milking with 12,470 lbs. of milk and 615 lbs. of fat topping her nearest rival by 30 lbs. of fat, while meeting the calving requirements of this class, she continued to milk and in 365 days produced 13,794 lbs. of milk and 683 lbs.
of fat to place her third in this particular division, and she was still milking 25 lbs. a day when they stopped milking her previously to calving. These two records are the highest records to be made by a two-year-old in Canada, and it is believed that they may be a world's record for the breed.

Other breeders making good records during the month were:
J. H. Crang, Glenville Farms,
Newmarket, whose four-year-old,
Crossland Langwater Cecilia produced 9,971 lbs. of milk and 528
lbs. of fat to place second in Canada in the 365 day division, and Susie of Glenville, a two-year-old, made 9,544 lbs. of milk and 500 lbs. of fat in 365 days.

Henry Borden's Tannery Hill
Farm, King, had three records reported. Willow Sequel's Sadie 2nd, bred by Frank McCutcheon, Kleinburg, produced 9,836 lbs. of milk and 433 lbs. of fat as a four-year-old. Donnelly Captain's Rose 2nd was third in Canada in the mature, 305 day division with 8,934 lbs. of milk and 473 lbs. of fat, and Orima's Beulah was fourth in Canada in the same class with 9,414 lbs. of milk and 472 lbs. of fat.

C. A. Cathers, Cathol Farm,
Newmarket, had the cow, Glanford Paulina's Malga, reported with 9,555 lbs. of milk and 482 lbs. of fat as a three-year-old in 365 days to place second in Canada.

Summer teams win Two eastern crowns

Frank Hollingsworth, Newmarket recreation director for a seven week period during the summer months, recently completed his report on summer activities for the commission.

The report shows that bantam and pee-wee baseball teams were organized for the O.B.A. race and both teams won Eastern Ontario championships. These teams gave 30 boys an opportunity to play organized baseball during the summer and fall. Also organized was a pee-wee baseball tournament with teams from Aurora, Brampton, Lindsay and Newmarket in which Newmarket finished second. In the bantam tournament, Brampton, Lindsay, Sutton and Newmarket were entered and Newmarket won the championship. Prizes for both tournaments were provided by the Optimists Club and the recreation director.

Also organized was a town
baseball league open for all boys 17 and under, the games being played at the Fairgrounds on Thursday and Friday nights.
Baseball activities also included exhibition games with Aurora pee-wees, Brampton pee-wees and bantams and Richmond Hill teams.

Mr. Hollingsworth was also instrumental in bringing in donkey baseball. All the proceeds of this game, played by the Lions and Optimists, went towards assisting minor baseball.

In softball, a morning league was organized but because of rain and lack of interest, this project had to be dropped. Three boxing and two wrestling shows were staged, and a larger indoor show at the Scout Hall or high school was planned but lack of a ring, mats, etc. forced cancellation of this. The director also assisted in the supervision of the swimming classes conducted under the Lions Club Park Program held each Friday at Musselman's Lake.

Mr. Hollingsworth had several suggestions to offer covering activities that could be conducted during the fall and winter. Included are boxing and wrestling classes at either high school or Scout hall, a floor hockey league, bowling at the alleys at the North End which could be obtained for a nominal fee on Saturday mornings, a soccer league for the public schools and plans for a public school hockey league.

OFFER ROOMS FOR AURORA CRAFT CLASSES

Two warm rooms and a warm welcome were offered the Aurora Recreation Commission by Father Lynett for winter craft classes. Rev. H. H. Howey said he felt the classes would be very welcome in the United Church Sunday school but that he would have to take it up with the church board and report back to the Commission.

The winter work of the craft supervisor has been handicapped by cramped quarters. The commission feels that the work is a community effort and that is why the churches were invited to attend a meeting to consider suitable quarters. If the work accomplished last winter and during the summer playground program is to continue a centrally located room large enough to accommodate the many children who want to attend the classes must be available for afternoon classes. Rev. K. D. Walmough and a representative from the Salvation Army were also present.

Plans for the annual banquet to be held later in the month were made. Garnet Barrager was appointed chairman for this event with Tom Dixon and Tom Swindle members of committee.

A letter from Mrs. Percy Ash thanking the commission for the roles which were sent to her to express the sympathy of the members in the passing of her husband, expressed the hope that the swimming classes would be held again at the Ash Bench.
Mrs. Ash wrote that she is anxious to carry on her husband's tradition of welcoming the children next year.

Teen Topics
By CRIS MOORE

Teen Topics is based on letters received and does not necessarily apply to any one individual.

Dear Cris,
I am going with a boy whom
I went with last year for awhile.
We get along quite well, but I cannot convince him that I don't care whether or not we go dancing. I like dancing, but he doesn't, even though he can dance fairly well.

Two weeks ago we had a school dance and this problem arose. I did not go to the dance simply because I did not want to go but he still thinks that I should have gone by myself.

What should I do? Should I go to the next dance by myself to satisfy him or should I continue not going and satisfy myself?
Sometimes you do not enjoy yourself at a dance unless you have a date, and I am afraid this will happen.

B.M.

This is a matter of personal choice. Certainly I feel I am not qualified to answer this question for you. It appears to me to be a straight case of giving into the boy, or having the boy give in to you, and it all depends how much you like the boy which of these alternatives you will take.

You should expect to have to make some personal sacrifices to the boy. It is only by deference to your boy friend that you are able to truly appreciate and care for him. There is a possibility that if you keep harping on this subject you may lose the boy.

The only advice that I would like to offer is to decide whether you like the boy better than you do dancing, or vice versa, and govern yourself accordingly.

Write your problems or suggestions to "Teen Topics," care of Era and Express.

HEAR CHALLENGE TO KEEP UP
MISSIONARY WORK

The Autumn Thank Offering
Meeting of the Evangeline Auxiliary of the W.M.S. of Trinity United Church was well attended.
Mrs. J. C. Best conducted the worship service taking as her theme "Christ's Disciples Bring Light."

This was a challenge to the United church to continue its program of evangelism, especially in Japan. Kagawa of Japan says, "Without the Spirit of the Cross, Japan cannot be saved."
Much has been accomplished during the last 25 years but great is the need yet among our Indians, meeting the new-comers to our country at Halifax and Montreal, in Angola, Africa, in Central India and in Honan, China.

Miss Clara Trivett sang "The Stranger of Galilee".

The second part of the program was a Thanksgiving service. Mrs. G. E. Case gave a very inspiring talk entitled "A Time for Giving Thanks." Several Thanksgiving hymns were sung and the meeting closed with the Mizpah benedictions followed by a social half hour.

IN TOP TEN

Helen Harmon, Mount Albert, and Grant Morton, Newmarket, came fifth and tenth in the recent essay competition, "Save The Wild Flowers", sponsored by the Ontario Horticultural Association. The competition was open to all pupils in grade 8 throughout Ontario and was sponsored by the association with the hope of interesting young people in conservation through developing ideas for saving our wild flowers for future generations.

Will they ever strike oil in your back yard?

An exciting thought, isn't it? But of course you know the odds are hopelessly against your being that lucky. In fact, you don't expect life to hand
you even a very small fortune on a platter. Or do you?

Take old-age benefits, for instance. Undoubtedly many older people really need help.
But no over all security plan is going to provide all the income you and your family will ever need in the future.
Things just aren't going to be that rosy.

Five million Canadians,
among whom you are probably one, want and expect security and independence in their later years. And they are planning for it now, in a way that suits their own individual and family needs.

These far-sighted men and women are enjoying more of the good things of life than ever before, and at the same time, protecting their loved ones now and building security for their old-age with life insurance.

Surely you want to help build this kind of future security for yourself and your family. Nearly 5 million Canadian life insurance policyholders are doing it now!

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

We dropped into Bert Morrison's store the other day for a chat and because the day was bright, our sight was dim as we entered the store. Towards the rear, we could vaguely make out a crouching figure on the counter. "Hello, Bert," we sang out. "Whatcha doing? Trying to fix a light?"

There was no answer, and we thought that Bert was so engrossed in his task that he hadn't heard us come in. "Are you busy, Bert?" we called. There was still no reply and we noticed for the first time that there was a certain rigidity about the figure, and as we came closer, we became aware of other details.

The figure's coloring was darker than Bert's and it was quite unusual for Bert to go so long without shaving. It was wearing an outlandish hat. "Bert would never wear a hat so out of fashion," we reflected.

Then we became aware of Bert himself, standing nearby. "I see you've met our bear," he called. We looked again at the figure on the counter. It was a bear, remarkably like a man, but a bear nonetheless. "Got him from the late Jack Knowles," said Bert, quite unaware of our confusion. "Had him in the store for years. Bring him out when the hunting season opens."

"Gulp," we said.

"Anything wrong?" asked Bert.

"Eye trouble," we mumbled. "Think we had better call back."

"Anything I can do?" asked Bert.

"Hide the bear," we called as we fled from the store.

We went to Barrie on Saturday for a meeting of the Central Ontario Weekly Press Association. It was a pleasant occasion for, as we have remarked before in this column, there is nothing editors like more than a chance to compare notes with others of the craft.

The occasion had some of the jollity of a christening. Bill Cranston, editor of the Midland Free Press Herald, had become, as he put it in his announcement, a father. The offspring is the County Free Press Herald, a second weekly published on Fridays to match the present Herald which comes out on Wednesdays.

The meeting had a certain grimness as well. The Orillia Packet and Times, a venerable weekly, has been purchased by Roy Thompson and it is expected that it will be published daily in a short time. It is regrettable to see a home-town weekly become just another link in a publishing chain; its essential character is lost.

The weekly press is under a severe strain despite all the appearances of post-war prosperity. Rising cost of production, the need for the latest in mechanical improvements, the intensified rivalry of other mediums; all these have forced a continuing change of the mechanical aspects of weekly publishing. Many weeklies are now printed in central printing plants although editorial offices are maintained in the home-town.

We shouldn't be surprised to see, in the next few years, a greater change in the form of the weekly. It is becoming more difficult to meet the requirements of readers in the traditional form. There have been several experiments in that direction already. We know of one weekly published in magazine form, of another whose front page of news has been replaced by a front page of editorial opinion, with the headlines scattered through the inside pages.

Color printing will become general among weeklies in time, and that too will impose mechanical changes which will become obvious in the changed form of the weekly.

First snow flurries of the season last Friday but they melted as fast as they fell.

The meeting of the Young People's League on Monday night was well attended. The missionary vice pres., Dr. Gilbert, took charge of the meeting and gave a survey of the mission fields of the United church of Canada. Topics were also given by Misses Helen Bogart and A. King, D. Murray and Lawrence Taylor. Miss Edna McCall, a solo, Miss L. Starr, a humorous reading, Frank Williams, a musical monologue and duet by Misses Marjory Binns and Marjory Taylor comprised the entertainment.

Mr. J. D. Rowland, Mount Albert, has purchased Binns' hardware business and will move to Newmarket shortly.

Roadhouse's furniture warehouse is getting a new roof this week.

The annual N.H.S. field day was held on Monday. Champions were senior girls, Doris Stoddard; senior boys, Douglas Marshall; intermediate girls, Hazel Brammer; intermediate boys, Harry Collingwood; junior girls, Mary Evans; junior boys, Phil Cane.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the York County Hospital Auxiliary was held Tuesday afternoon. Officers elected were: hon. pres., Mrs. Walter Eves; pres., Mrs. G. L. McLennan; vice pres., Mrs. Howard Cane, Mrs. K. N. Robertson; sec., Miss Olive Niles; treas., Mrs. Gordon Manning; press corr., Mrs. J. F. Harvey; exec. com., Mrs. C. G. The Editorials:

Difference of logic

Toronto's proposal to amalgamate its suburbs was presented in a manner best described as blunt. The suburbs had a natural antipathy to being swallowed by the city; this antipathy was greatly strengthened by the city's undiplomatic approach. The result has been that hearings before the board of municipal affairs have been carried on in an atmosphere of bitterness.

Newmarket has an interest in the hearings because its county taxes will be greatly increased should amalgamation be permitted.

But if the case of Toronto vs. the suburbs is carried on in an atmosphere of bitterness, the discussion between Whitchurch and Newmarket on the amalgamation of land west of the municipality moves along almost serenely by comparison. Some weeks ago, Whitchurch approached the town with the suggestion it take in the property due west of its present borders. In recent talks, the proposal has been extended to include land to Yonge St. This is a logical proposition and the details are being worked out with the equanimity one would expect of such logic.

What a difference between the two discussions.

Distribution still a problem

The promptness of the milk price arbitration board in handing down its decision was as surprising to the milk producers as the decision was disappointing. The last time such a board was named, months passed before its decision was given; in this instance, it was a matter of days, a condition which is praiseworthy. The decision itself, however, will not be cheered, even though many producers will recognize the argument that the milk market would only be reduced by a further increase in consumer price.

The fact remains, however, that the producers are still not receiving the income they need to remain in business profitably. Agriculture Minister Kennedy recently published findings of his department which showed that in other large Canadian centres, the producer received more and the consumer paid less than on the Toronto market. It has been demonstrated that the consumer will buy less rather than pay more on the Toronto market, and the producer is taking less than he should. It would appear that it is the manner of distribution which puts consumer and producer so out of joint. One approach towards cutting distribution costs in Toronto has been reducing the number of deliveries. This suggestion has been bitterly opposed by the distributors' labor because it would mean a reduction of the working force. In this connection, Saturday Night points out:

"Organized labor seems to have overlooked the possibility of pricing itself out of the market. It has not yet become lawful for the individual final consumer to be picketed for doing something which he cannot afford to have done for him by union labor . . . there are many services which, though it would be much nicer to have them performed for him by experienced special workers, he can perform for himself if he absolutely has to, and even get his friends to help him perform them.

"There is more of this sort of thing going on than organized labor reckons. Amateur labor is doing a great deal of the limited amount of house building that is now in progress. . . Similarly, the development of too great a differential between the price of milk at the doorstep and at the corner grocery is bound to be reflected in a considerable increase in the number of people who fetch their milk in person. . ."

Pollution laws resented

While Newmarket's anti-smoke by-law waits action in council, federal government representatives are discussing a model by-law to cover air pollution across Canada. The Newmarket by-law is concerned with abatement of heavy smoke from industrial, commercial and residential premises. It might go a step further and explore the possibilities of restricting railway smoke as well. The national model, however, is concerned with all forms of air pollution including that from gases and liquids.

Professor E. A. Allcut, chairman of the Smoke Abatement Advisory Board, says that city control of air pollution is not enough. He cites the manner in which smoke from Alberta fires travelled far east and south as an example of how air pollution can spread. And, he said, the national planners were concerned that air pollution, if unchecked, might lead to disasters like that at Donora in the United States where a combination of climatic conditions and smog killed 18 in 1948.

Concern with pollution, whether in the air, on land or water, is growing. Premier Frost warned some months ago that his provincial administration would make every effort to reduce pollution of waterways. Again, there is an opportunity for local application of such an effort. The Holland River has served as a sewer far too long. Newmarket is committed to the construction of a sewage disposal plant but it has been a reluctant commitment, one which the administrations of other years have avoided as long as possible.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Measures restricting pollution, whatever the form, invariably cause resentment in a country which from the beginning of its time, has had more space than its inhabitants knew what to do with. No one minded if a spoiler left his mark on a few acres: there was plenty of virgin land yet to be had. The number of abandoned farms in Ontario, the casualness with which cities dump their untreated sewage into waterways, the usual method of garbage disposal, dumping it in a convenient field; all these testify to a way of life no longer compatible with modern times. It will be years yet before Canadians begin to care for their surroundings; until then anti-pollution measures are not going to be overly-popular but all the more necessary.

Not one without the other

There is a lot of talk about the need of price controls. We wonder, however, if those who advocate such measures are aware of what their imposition would entail. Price controls are useless without wage controls. To hope for one without the other is to be like the young wife who explained to her family doctor that she was really only a little bit pregnant.

What seems to escape most advocates of price controls is that the major contribution to price increases is the increase in labor costs. When increased wages on any manufactured article are pyramided, as they are by the time the finished article reaches the consumer, it represents a sizeable jump. A good deal of the clamor for price ceilings comes from labor but we doubt if labor is prepared to submit its wage increases to government approval in return for price ceilings on the goods they must buy.

Another contribution to the current increase in the cost of living is the belief of some labor groups in a rigid order of salary preference. Thus the railway workers argued before a government board some months ago that they were entitled to increases because at one time, they had enjoyed a favored position as one of the best paid labor groups in Canada, but in recent years, that position had been lost as other labor groups improved their income.

It seems incredible that a labor group should believe that income should be so determined. No working man can expect more income than his employer is able to pay, and differences of employers' ability to pay, even in the same business, is infinite. Demands now for wage increases simply mean that the increase is passed on to the consumer who in turn is obliged to demand increases so he can afford the new prices—and the cycle is endless.

There was a time when wage increases were absorbed out of profits but profits have been reduced by changing business conditions and taxation to such an extent that they no longer represent a pool from which increases can be paid. We are being warned, in fact, that the low profits shown by many companies are dangerous to our economy because they discourage the investors, and they threaten the reserves which businesses draw from to improve their machinery, expand their facilities and generally hold their own in competition.

There are exceptions, of course, but their position should not blind us to the bulk of industry which feels the cost of inflated economy as keenly as the individual.

Editorial notes

A warning marker on the bridge over the railway at Queen St. might avert a serious accident. The driver of an east-bound car, meeting a west-bound car coming over the bridge at night is blinded enough by the lights that he is unable to make out the railing on the outside of the sidewalk.

Newmarket and Aurora are expanding rapidly. The indications are that the expansion will continue. What is it likely to cost the municipality over the next five years? Some idea of the answer may be found in the figures of Mr. David B. Mansour, president, Central Housing and Mortgage Corporation, who estimates that the average community growth of centres of 5,000 population or more to be better than three percent a year, or 16 percent over the next five years. Mr. Mansour suggests that in this five-year period, the municipalities will have to provide services at a rate of an acre for every 100 of the present population. Cost of those services was placed at $80 per capita of the present population or about $8,000 an acre. This works out to an over-all cost of $600 millions in the next five years.

Office Cat reports Catnips By Ginger

"Mammals seem to have passed the peak of their evolution long ago," said Slim Bliggens the other day.

"You mean we warm blooded creatures are on the way to extinction?" I asked.

Slim nodded his head with sombre resignation as he executed a deft stroke over the half submerged tusks of a prehistoric tusked mammoth.

Slim Bliggens, our home town natural born primitive artist, has been doing a prehistoric scene in oils. It is a scene of turmoil and strife and ugliness to say nothing of many pots of paint. Great tusked mammoths lie trapped in the death pools of the California tar pits of prehistoric periods. Wolves, and sabre toothed carnivores, attempting to wrest a mammoth meal from the fatal grasp of the tar, are also entrapped. They seem to emit cries with their last gasps of air.

He has been an active painter. A few months ago he was privileged to be commissioned by the brewing companies to paint "Our National Heritage" as your favorite cat correspondent reported before. It is incidental to note that Slim's painting, which he made after a trip to the nation's capital, netted him considerably more money than he expected. The brewing companies paid him $1,000 to have it destroyed. It was not the recompense which gave Slim great joy in this.

Slim took to nature painting during the end of the summer and his "coup" was to paint, in one sitting, the Fritter-breasted Tit-bit nesting in its natural habitat. Most ardent bird watchers rarely see it, let alone paint it in one sitting!

Next, Slim was to take on his most recent endeavour, that of painting natural life in prehistoric eras and periods. His "Salamanca-eye view of a palaeozoic invertebrate" is already beginning to bring him renown.

The most extraordinary of them all is his painting of an extinct South American bird called the Phororhacos which stood some eight feet high and had a massive skull about two feet long. In another group he depicted the Dinornis of New Zealand together with Aepyornis, all of whom laid eggs larger than footballs, also Didus the Dodo with the East Gwillimbury Ick.

"Since you have embarked on this study and taken millions of years in your stride," I said, "You, Slim, must have some ideas about life. Do you prophesy a much longer existence for the mammal or should I cash my insurance now?"

"Evolution bein' kinda slow like, I'd bank on keeping at least some term insurance," said Slim. "But better take a real long view. You can't evolve backwards, that is your descendants won't evolve back into fish. But they may quit descendants won't evolve back with the state of things they're living under."

"Well if man doesn't have to go backwards and be apes and likewise cats into rats and fish as the popular interpretation of it goes, we sure can be thankful we don't have to go through all that again," I pointed out.

"Anyways," said Slim, "Mammals seem to have passed their peak. Scientists say they passed it some time ago in the Miocene epoch which was somewhere about twenty million years ago."

"Then I guess I won't buy term insurance," I said.

"My old friend Prof. Rus Taway, the palaeontologist, says that the reptiles and amphibians are certainly on the way out. Nor will the little fishes, numerous or meek, ever be likely to inherit the earth."

"Then who will?"

"Plants," says Slim. "Plants is evolving faster than anybody. Someday plants will evolve so far that they'll have brains, better'n ours even. Of course they'll all be potted. They'll go around in self contained pots and fly in saucers to other planets. They'll develop eyes and ears probably. Only difference is that they'll have chlorophyll in their veins instead of blood."

You may think Slim Bliggens is mad. No. He's our natural home town primitive artist.

Yet I can't see a plant saying to another plant, "I can tell you a story that would make your chlorophyll run cold."

The Top Six Inches

A few years back, a popular slogan with farmers was: Grow two blades instead of one. By better cultivation and the use of commercial fertilizers and more productive strains of grains and grasses, two blades instead of one has become a reality.

By selection and breeding, and by feeding a balanced ration, farmers are producing more eggs, milk, meat per pound of feed consumed. This change has taken over 40 years and even now, some farmers still prefer grandpa's way of doing things.

The lessons we farmers had in production are easily compared to the lessons we must learn in marketing. Our lessons in production added up right and make sense. That cannot be said about our marketing.

Reports come from the housewife and the retail merchant that pork products have been in short supply for some time. Information coming from the shipping departments of our packing plants would confirm these reports. We farmers expect, when demand exceeds supply, prices will rise. On January 4, 1950, dressed hogs at Toronto were $25.50 per 100 pounds; July 21, $32.50; October 1, $29.50. We can understand the price in July—demand caused the rise.

We checked the retail trade and find that many orders are only half filled on pork products. Our information from the packing plants says that the supply is short.

Why, if pork is still in short supply, does the price to the farmer drop $3 per 100 pounds. The plowing matches were held in a potato district, and the low price on potatoes was well talked over by the visitors. With the prospects of a large crop, the price is forced down.

It would help if each farmer in York county, by verbal or written notice to the township clerk, councilmen, or some member of the federation, would agree to this assessment for federation of agriculture expenses. For those farmers that expect someone else to do it and to those who think nothing can be done, here is a chance to help. Cheerio.

SEEK MEETING ON WHITCHURCH SCHOOL AREA

Public school inspector O. M. McKillop was present at Saturday's meeting of Whitchurch township council to discuss problems relative to allocation of school assessment and other municipal problems related to public school welfare. Some of the difficulties encountered in the formation of a public school area of two or three schools in the Wilcox Lake region were cited, among them being the problem of choosing a suitable site for the school.

"Regardless of where they choose the site, we have a problem there," Inspector McKillop stated. One suggested location was in lot 5, down the second in section 7, another was on the property of Sniveley's alongside the dance hall.

Regarding the discussion of council passing a by-law creating a school area, Inspector McKillop advised, "The council has the power to pass the by-law if they find it expedient. Three hundred dollars would be paid to you in the year of formation, and each successive year. If you pass your by-law this year, you would receive your first payment at once. I'm Scotch enough to want to see you get that 300," he concluded.

"And I'm Scotch enough to think we'll reach for 300 and lose 1,000," Councillor Baycroft countered.

"It's the wrong people who pay," Clerk Crawford objected.

"The owner has to pay school tax, but not the fee," the Inspector clarified.

Some discussion centered around taking away some of the property of section 7 and putting it in 13.

"Where are these children attending now?" was asked.

"On the south side, number 7," came the answer, with the added information, "In number 6 there are a lot of children not attending at all."

"I think I should be instructed to call all these boards to meet the council and that you should be there," Clerk Crawford stated to Inspector McKillop, to which suggestion inspector and council agreed.

"If an area is formed, who elects the trustees?" Councillor

An Aurora Opinion

By DOROTHY BARKER
Aurora Editor

The teen-age problem is like a harp with one string: to many the tune gets monotonous, yet in the realm of realism it is ever pertinent.

The mayor of our town, who should know for he has raised three 'teen-agers, thinks that the young people of today are spoiled and lack initiative, a sense of responsibility to their community or their country; that they exhibit an even greater lack of gratitude for the effort made in the past to popularize "Teen-age Night" at the high school.

A past president of the Home and School Association, mother of four in this age group, feels that more vital and constructive interest should be taken in a planned program for youth to keep them off the streets and out of dark alleys. Friday and Saturday nights are a nightmare to this mother, who realizes a son or daughter in their 'teens

Monday evening, Oct. 23, was set for the joint meeting to discuss formation of the area.

Wilcox elects board For new section 13

On the shoulders of the trustee board of S. S. 13, the newly formed section of Whitchurch twp., falls the responsibility of making important decisions in the selection of a site and planning for erection of a school suitable in size and construction to take care of the needs of the Lake Wilcox area school population for years to come.

At a meeting of the ratepayers held in the Community Hall October 11, Fred Lynn, trucker, was named trustee for a three-year term; Alfred Patchel, jeweller engraver, for two years; and Richard Ward, printer, was elected for one year.

For a second time, ratepayers were given an opportunity to review the basis of the awards and the decision of borders made by the arbitration board selected to divide Oak Ridges school section for the formation of the new section. The explanation was given by John Crawford, clerk of the township. Public school inspector O. M. McKillop spoke on the duties of a trustee board, and its responsibility to its ratepayers.

The first procedure of the board would be the selection of a chairman and a secretary-treasurer, said the inspector.

Meeting this week, the board named Alfred Patchel chairman, Wilfred J. Locking, buyer for National Grocers, is the secretary-treasurer.

Raise funds for Children's Christmas

With thoughts approaching Christmas in mind, a group of Lake Wilcox women have opened their hearts to an appealing cause, to find joy for children who may find a none too bountiful Santa Claus on his visit to the community. Mrs. William Ashby, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Clifford Weston and a host of others of the district have designed plans to raise funds for this purpose. Under the auspices of the Ratepayers' Association, an objective of $400 has been set, $70 of which is already in the treasury.

Never doubting the community spirit, Mrs. Ashby and Mrs. Weston conducted rummage sales, one at the former's home, the second held in the hall. "Everyone was very helpful and gave used clothing, children's clothing, baby articles, cakes and other saleable things," said Mrs. Ashby.

On November 1, a third sale will be held and gifts and donations are invited. A turkey will be raffled in the near future, the gift of a resident. One lady is making knitted articles for sale.

Bingos are in the picture, held every Thursday evening until Christmas. The first is being held tonight (Thursday), at the home of Mrs. Ashby. Prizes for the games will largely depend on donations received by the committee in charge, in order to avoid expenditure of current treasury account.

Bank Sought for Oak Ridges

A branch of one of the Canadian chartered banks would be a boon to residents here. Effort to establish these facilities is being seriously considered with a meeting in view with bank authorities in the near future. Oak Ridges school board is talking the matter over and local businessmen are keenly interested. The rising growth of population of the area and the increase in business concerns is at a point where convenient banking facilities is a near must.

Council Candidate Elected

Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Ratepayers' Association has elected E. L. McCarron, Toronto, a township farmer and sales manager for Burns and Company Ltd., a municipal candidate to replace Stanley Rule who has vacated the appointment made some time ago, due to sale of his Whitchurch twp. property. The monthly meeting of the Association will be held on October 25 in Oak Ridges school. The appointment of a new president will take place, necessitated

Corn sold immature, Advise ensiling it

Corn has been one crop which made rather unsatisfactory growth this year until the latter part of the summer and it has in the past few weeks made an exceptional comeback. However, for those growing husking corn, the experts have issued a word of warning that much of the husking corn, even if it escapes frost for another two weeks, will not be sufficiently matured for husking and should be ensiled right away.

To check on the maturity break an average ear in two and look closely at the exposed kernels on the outer half. If a "water line" shows between the matured tip of the kernel and the less matured inner end of the kernel, it indicates immaturity. The part between the water-line and the cob will still be found milky even though the outer surface of the ear appears quite hard. Immature corn, particularly since the frost of the past weekend, will shrivel very badly if kept for grain purposes.

We understand from W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative at Newmarket, that there are about a dozen and a half growers entered in the 75 Bushel Husking Corn club and he is advising all growers to check closely on the maturity of their corn before it is too late to put it in the silo.

W.I. NEWS

Zephyr branch visited Belhaven branch last Tuesday and provided a most interesting program. Mrs. Meyers, chairman, gave a reading centering around their main topic, "Friendship". This was followed by an instructive paper by Mrs. Arnold entitled "Personality". Beautiful music was provided by the trio and by Mrs. Howse. Mrs. Crawford gave the reading, "A Friend to Man", and Mrs. James Galbraith, a humorous recitation. An instructive as well as interesting demonstration on making paper flowers by Mrs. Don Galbraith was enjoyed by all. Mrs. E. Walker won the bouquet of carnations donated by the demonstrator. Lunch was served by the Belhaven ladies.

The company agreed to hold weekly meetings on Tuesday at 6.30 p.m. to include three regular meetings a month, the fourth assigned to patrol leaders and seconds.

Mrs. S. C. Sniveley gave an impressive account of a tour through European countries taken by herself and her husband recently, to members of St. John's W.A. at the October meeting held at the home of Mrs. G. Beatty. The speaker told of the war graves in Italy numbering into the thousands. The fate of children, prey to invading communists from the Balkan states who abducted them, had caused unassuaged grief in that country.

The annual rummage sale and afternoon tea sponsored by the W.A. has been arranged for October 25 in St. John's parish hall. A hockey club is being lined up by Oak Ridges Lions club. The youngsters will enter one of the district leagues.

The remains of Emily Taylor Willis, Toronto, were interred in St. John's Anglican cemetery on Saturday, Oct. 14. She died on October 12. She was the daughter of the late Matthew and Ella Willis of Aurora. The funeral service was held from the Ralph Day funeral home, Toronto, with service in the chapel.

Mr. Grant Stephenson with his wife and family moved to Lake Wilcox this week to occupy the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Butler who have removed to their home in the Mulhead sub-division, Yonge St. Mr. Stephenson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stephenson.

Mrs. Roy Renwick with her children, Randy and Gill, are spending a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cole of Thessalon, before moving to Brampton. The Renwick house is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien of Toronto. Mr. Renwick is a pilot with the T.C.A., Malton.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams, Lake Wilcox, on Monday, Oct. 16, at York County hospital, Newmarket. He will be named Stanley Richard and is a brother for Fay, aged three and Linda, 18 months.

Excellent reception for television sets at Lake Wilcox is reported there. Mr. Alfred Patchel and Mr. C. L. Stephenson are getting good results. So occupied with the programs they feel inclined to believe they save money on theatre shows, save gasoline, and are glued to the living room chairs for evenings.

The interior and exterior paint job on Mr. Bob Benson's new home at King has been done by Mr. G. O. Gamble, who will also do work on a couple of other dwellings being built by Mr. Benson.

Miss Marilyn Hawman and some of her riding class will compete at the Fall Meet of Toronto, Maple and Aurora Pony clubs at Eglinton on Saturday next.

Mrs. C. L. Stephenson was a guest at the birthday anniversary court what evening of King Women's Institute held at Ridge Inn on October 10.

WHITCHURCH NEWS

Grant pay increase To Whitchurch chief

Police Chief Mulholland appeared before Whitchurch township council at its regular October meeting Saturday to ask for an increase in salary, and to discuss matters pertaining to his department. Asked what was the best way to solve the problem, whether an assistant should be employed now to gain experience for summer work, or whether the chief felt he could handle it himself, he favored the latter. He stated any training a new man would gain in the winter would not be much advantage in summer work. He felt he could handle the winter work himself, bringing in extra help at any time necessary.

"At the present time I do a first-class constable's work and I get a third-class constable's pay. I'd take a first-class constable's pay," he stated. He pointed out he was on 24-hour duty and recalled he had made four trips to Wilcox Lake in one single night.

"I quite agree our chief has a full-time job," Reeve Logan commented, adding that it was near the end of the year for council to start raising salaries when there were others in the same position as the chief.

"We have a clerk here doing a good job and working 18 hours or so, and he's not getting much pay," the Reeve continued.

Asked to clarify his statement regarding third and first-class constables, the chief stated first class constables receive $22.50, second $24.50 and third $22.50. Council agreed the cost of living had gone up and the chief was doing a first-class job. On motion of Deputy Reeve McLaughlin and Councillor Legge, the chief's pay was increased $350 annually, as from October 16.

Letters to the Editor

The editor: I would appreciate being permitted to bring the following paragraphs to the notice of your readers—but especially your farm readers who, if one may judge by editorials and items in the newspapers these days (from the weeklies to the dailies and the trade journals) are increasingly "up on the bit" and, as the modernist says it, "going places".

"Something over a million people working on British farms are feeding 20 to 25 million Britons—in a country about one-fifth the size of the province of Quebec. It is indeed surprising to remember that England, Scotland and Wales are roughly comparable to the State of Idaho in area, and not unlike it in shape. When the U.K. population of 50,000,000 is compared with the combined populations of Canada and the United States (165,000,000), the density of population in Britain becomes apparent. Here lies one of the primary problems: how to feed all these people on the small area of available farm land—little more than half an acre per person." (From "Britain Speaks The Flow", 1949); and

"Production of eggs in the following countries was estimated for the year 1949 as follows, in FAO Commodity Report, Sept. 18: United States, 3,204,000 tons; China, 480,000 tons; France, 420,000 tons; United Kingdom, 325,000 tons; Italy, 255,000 tons; Canada, 234,000 tons; Germany (Trizonia), 174,000 tons; Denmark, 132,000 tons; Belgium, 131,000 tons; Australia, 130,000 tons; Sweden, 86,000 tons; Netherlands, 85,000 tons.

OCTOBER 1950

Take advantage of Company's Payroll Savings Plan to order Canada Savings Bonds. It's a great way to make yourself save - and they're always cashable at full face value at any bank.

Yorkshireman W. E. Hopkins is considered champion world cocktail maker. His "John Simon", for which he used a gin base, won him the title in open competition in London.

Ontario's growth has been amazing. Since 1947 the population has increased by 323,000, over 70,000 new homes have been constructed, approximately 700 new industries have been established and the value of production has risen an estimated 1½ billion dollars, 88,541 new rural consumers have been supplied with Hydro and the value of agricultural production has increased by some 400 million dollars . . . all of which called for power in greater quantities than at any previous time.

BUY—in addition to this tremendous growth, the recent step-up in industrial activity due to defence rearmament contracts has brought about a sharp increase in the use of electricity. In the past few weeks the maximum primary demand in Southern Ontario has been as much as 400,000 horsepower (298,000 kilowatts) higher than a year ago . . . an increase 5 times greater than the long term average rate of growth. For this reason your Hydro urges everyone to co-operate in the conservation of electricity.

IN MEMORIAM

Armstrong — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, George Armstrong, who passed away October 20, 1949. You went away without farewell. You said goodbye to none; But Heaven's gate was open wide And a loving voice said "Come". Days of sadness still come o'er us, Tears in sadness often flow; Memory keeps you ever near us, Since you've gone a year ago. Lovingly remembered by wife, daughters and family.

Baile — In loving memory of our mother, Florence A. Baile, who passed away October 20, 1939. "Treasured memories." Marjorie and Frank.

Baile — In loving memory of our mother, Florence Annie Baile, who passed away October 20, 1939. That unselfish life — it has not died. Violet and Ted.

Reid — In loving memory of Emily Cora Reid, who passed away October 25, 1949. Sweet little flower of heavenly birth. She was too fair to bloom on earth. Lovingly remembered by mother, daddy, sisters and brothers.

COUPLE WED IN DOUBLE-RING RITE

A double ring ceremony took place under an arch of autumn leaves and flowers at the home of the bride's parents, when Dorothy Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Smith, Queensville, became the bride of William Bruce Jordan, on October 14. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Warren.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a gown of white satin with embroidered net and finger-tip veil, and carrying a bouquet of white baby mums and pink rosebuds. She wore a two-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. William Duncan, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a pale green taffeta gown with matching headress, and carried a bouquet of white and yellow mums. Miss Ruth Jordan, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, wearing a mauve taffeta gown with matching headress and carried a bouquet of mauve and white mums.

Mr. Orval Jordan, cousin of the groom, was best man. At the reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother received in navy faille with navy accessories, assisted by the groom's aunt, Mrs. Curtin, in flowered navy silk jersey with navy accessories.

For their trip to northern Ontario the bride wore a grey wool jersey dress, winter white hat and black accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan will reside in Mount Albert.

SPECIAL MISSIONARY MEETING OCT. 26

A special missionary meeting will be held in the Newmarket Gospel Tabernacle on Thursday, Oct. 26, at 2:30 p.m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Victor Griffin of South America where she has given nine years of service, and to which field she will shortly return. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies to attend.

Mrs. Griffin raised a family of four children, two of whom are studying in Canada to complete their college work preparatory to entering the ministry.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

—Misses Norma Jackson and Norine Wass, Royal Victoria hospital, Barrie, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wass and family.

Herman Fowler named St. Andrew's organist

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Newmarket, announces the appointment of Mr. Herman C. Fowler, Mus. Bac., R.M.T., as organist and choir director succeeding Miss Blanche Bailey whose work in Toronto has made it rather inconvenient to carry on her choir work in Newmarket.

Mr. Fowler has had a long and successful career in the field of church music, particularly in his work with junior choirs.

OBITUARY Mrs. Jennie Tate

Jennie Elizabeth Tate passed away on Saturday morning, Oct. 14. She had enjoyed good health until six months ago. She took a keen interest in world and local events, and was particularly concerned with the welfare of her family and church, and her friends, of whom there were many.

She was respected as a motherly, Christian woman, always ready to help any who needed help.

She married the late Hugh Evans in 1888, and he predeceased her in 1913. She married John Tate in 1917, and he predeceased her in 1935, after which she made her home with her son Lorne Evans.

She is survived by her three sons, Frank of Limerick, Sask., Lorne of Aurora, and Garnet of Gormley. A son Roy died in 1920. A sister is Mrs. Charles Denne of Newmarket. Her family had grown to 29 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren, and two great, great grandchildren, when she died.

Seventeen members of the Snowball Women's Institute were conducted through the Ontario hospital, Aurora, by Dr. W. A. Reddick and the bursar, D. R. McCann, Saturday afternoon.

The members were impressed with the well equipped kitchen, the huge sunny dormitories which in some instances accommodate 33 beds and the recreation facilities in the "day room" for rainy days. This room is also used twice a week as a movie theatre when the boys are shown full-length features and colored travel pictures.

Dr. Reddick had five of "his boys" brought into the staff sitting room for the ladies to see as the examples of the various types of patients being treated at the hospital.

Mrs. E. Reddick asked the doctor if donations of candies and cookies would be acceptable. Dr. Reddick explained that 175 of the 250 patients at present registered at the hospital had neither parents nor friends interested in their welfare. He said that any contributions including colored picture books or comics would be most welcome. These gifts are distributed every Friday night.

The care of bright colored flower beds and the re-landscaping of the front terrace have given the ladies who are able to work a great deal of pleasure during the summer months. Plans for an extensive vegetable garden which will eventually supply all the produce needs and stock the huge root cellar at the rear of the main building were also started this summer. Two hundred turkeys and 250 laying pullets meet the poultry needs of the hospital.

Dr. Reddick said he welcomed the interest of the public in the work of the hospital. "Too many people have a dread of this type of place," said the doctor. "They fight shy of visiting us and yet it is only by paying us a visit that the public can see how happy the boys are. It is the only home they know."

Mrs. Herb Patrick, president, moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Reddick and Mr. McCann for the interesting and informative afternoon the members had enjoyed as their guests.

SKATING CLUB DRAW

The draw for the Newmarket Figure Skating club was held in the arena on Thursday, Oct. 12, with Pat West drawing the winning tickets as follows: figure skates, Douglas Harrison, Aurora; second prize, 16 lb. ham, Nelson Shanks, Newmarket; third prize, woolen blanket, Donna Barber, Newmarket.

CHANGE VOTING HOURS

An amendment to the voting by-law changing the Aurora voting hours from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., making the hours from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. will be passed at a special meeting of council Monday, Oct. 25. It was the opinion of council members that too many commuters are deprived of their franchise by the present time limit.

INSTALL OFFICERS OF AURORA LODGE

New Noble Grand of Elma Rebekah Lodge No. 146, Aurora, Mrs. J. E. Buchanan, was installed Monday night. Thirty members of the installing staff of the Rebekah Lodges in the East District, with which Aurora has been recently amalgamated, arrived by chartered bus for the ceremony.

Other officers installed were, right and left supporters of the Noble Grand, Sisters Olive Rowe and Erma Stone; Vice Grand, Sister Edith Turp; right and left supporters, Sisters Lela Hume and Jean Bateman; Chaplain Sister E. Quinn; Warden, Sister M. Dennis; Conductor, Sister Vera Heaney; Inside Guardian, Sister Laura Warlow; Outside Guardian, Sister Violet Holder.

The district deputy president, Sister Clements, Toronto, and past deputy president, Sister Middleton, Toronto, and three chartered members Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and Mrs. Alma Andrews were present. Following the impressive ceremony a buffet supper was served.

Sentenced to six months For Davis Dr. break-in

An 18-year-old Newmarket youth was sentenced to prison by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake last week. He was given a term of six months definite and six months indefinite. A signed statement given to Constable James Leeder by Peregood on the night he was apprehended was admitted as evidence.

Peregood admitted drilling holes in the rear door of the Newmarket Lingerie Company factory on Davis Dr. When asked by the officer why he broke into a lingerie factory, Peregood said he was looking for something he could sell.

New Zealand this autumn will be the first Commonwealth country to use the Prince Charles' picture on a postage stamp.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

At last, the Thanksgiving weekend arrived. Our greatly anticipated and often postponed trip to the Finger Lake district of New York state materialized. Bright and early, in fact before dawn, we were up on the morning of our departure completing all the last minute details.

Did Grandma understand the intricacies of the lactic acid formula? Had we remembered the many details which go to form the daily routine care of a wee baby, for on this trip the newest member of the Ion family was to remain safely at home in the tender care of his maternal grandparents. Only the three senior partners were game to tackle a trip with meals prepared out-of-doors and tourist cabin accommodation in October. Our neighbors had likewise made arrangements for the care of their baby boy and with the older one were prepared for the holiday trip, so on Saturday morning the six of us were on our way.

For days before this, there had been serious consultations on the various phases of our trip. Byrd setting out for the Antarctic could not have been more thorough in his preparations. Friends who had made the trip recently were consulted regarding the most scenic route. Further details about that area were gleaned from conversations with local residents who were raised there. All over the house, in fact all over the two houses, could be found scraps of paper bearing important memos.

Here was a list of necessary camping equipment, there were the proposed menus for the three days. This one was the shopping list for groceries to be purchased in Canada. Another contained the needed groceries to be bought in the States. (Perishables had to be purchased in small quantities just when needed and then, there was no sense buying coffee in Canada when it was less expensive in that "foreign land".)

As you can see, we have as much fun preparing for a trip as we do while away. But, we have forgotten to mention the most important lists and as the time for our departure drew nearer, these particular lists grew longer and longer. . . . Yes, you've guessed it. They were our shopping lists.

It was evident that many Canadians had made their way across the border. Wherever we went, Ontario licence plates were to be found in great numbers. When we arrived at the shopping centres in Rochester on Saturday and on our return trip on Monday, in Buffalo, we saw hastily chalked on many store windows the notation, "Canadian money accepted at par". An opportunity such as this wasn't to be missed.

The freeing of the Canadian dollar which allowed it to find its own value on the currency market helped decide many Canadians to take their trip to the States over the long weekend. American merchants were making the most of the situation and put up these little signs as further inducements. Guess this business of Americans dashing across to Canada to purchase woollens and china while we visit their shops for cotton fabrics, wearing apparel, etc., is a replica of our international trading system in miniature.

One aspect of shopping in Buffalo which never fails to annoy us is the extra tax which is levied there. On most articles it is only one cent on the dollar, nothing to worry about except as a nuisance factor. However, on certain lines of merchandise such as purses and jewelry it runs as high as 20 percent. There are many Canadians who resent the "hidden" luxury taxes which we pay in our own country with the purchase of certain commodities. They feel that the original price of the article should be quoted with the tax kept separate so that the purchaser is more aware of this method of taxation. Personally, we prefer to have the final price which we are going to pay marked on the article. It is annoying to have decided on a particular article and then find that it will cost a dollar or so more. Of course, this business of the extra purchase tax is not restricted to Erie county for there is a similar situation in Montreal and many other centres.

As for the trip itself, we shall have to wait until next week to tell you about that.

The Evening Branch of St. Paul's W.A., Newmarket, held its monthly devotional and business meeting on Monday evening at the rectory when Mr. Rhodes continued his series in the W.A. study book, "Islam Our Neighbor". ST. ANDREW'S SCENE OF NUPTIALS

Baskets of colored gladioli and ferns decorated St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Newmarket, on September 30 for the marriage of Rhoda Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Longhurst, Newmarket, and Mr. Gordon Salter Proctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Proctor, Newmarket. Rev. M. E. Boudreau officiated. Miss Blanche Bailey was organist and Mrs. Leonard Little, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a broadened satin gown with net yoke, the full skirt forming a slight train. Her embroidered floor-length veil was caught to a crown of beads and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis and Scotch heather. Miss Pauline Longhurst, sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore aqua satin with matching head-dress and carried a bouquet of yellow and bronze mums. The bridesmaid, Miss Marie Dillingham, cousin of the bride, in belle rose satin with matching headress, carried yellow and bronze mums.

Mary Kathleen Faris, niece of the bride, was flowergirl, wearing pale blue satin with matching headress and carried a nosegay of pink roses and carnations. Mr. Harold Proctor, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Messrs. Harrison Proctor and Gordon Stephenson.

Mrs. Longhurst received in navy lace with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses, assisted by Mrs. Proctor in fuschia crepe with black accessories and corsage of talisman roses. For motoring to the east coast, the bride chose a grey gabardine suit with grey and pale blue accessories. They will reside in Newmarket. Guests were present from Toronto, Brampton, Aurora, Mount Albert and Stouffville.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Gilroy, Andrew St., on Monday, Oct. 30. Guild members are requested to make note of the change of day as the regular meeting night falls on Halloween.

ST. ANDREW'S W.A. SUMMER SALES SAID SUCCESSFUL

The Women's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Newmarket, met at the home of Mrs. John Hodge on Tuesday, Oct. 17. Mrs. Joseph Greer presided over the well attended meeting and in welcoming several new members to the association said that it was gratifying to have such an excellent turnout for the meeting.

Mrs. G. Blanchard and Mrs. Leonard Little took the devotional period. Mrs. T. H. Walls gave a financial report on the weekly summer bazaar sales which proved so successful. She extended the thanks of the association to the ladies of the congregation who had assisted in the project. Mrs. Walls convened the sales.

Following the business session during which plans were completed for the holding of the annual St. Andrew's day tea and bazaar, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Neil Paris, Yonge St.

In Belgium, pigeon racing compares with our baseball as a national sport.

TO SEND FOOD TO OVERSEAS CLUB

The Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club held a dinner meeting at the King George hotel on Monday evening, October 16. Guests for the night were Mrs. C. E. Blossdale and Mrs. R. Rogers. Miss Laura Whitfield presided over the well attended meeting.

Mrs. Blossdale was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Miss Norine Ayers on behalf of the club in appreciation of the work done by Mrs. Blossdale in connection with the presentation of the variety show, "It's A Date."

Mrs. Rogers, the guest speaker of the evening told of the activities of the Hospital Aid and accepted a cheque from the club, the proceeds from the variety show. Mrs. Rogers, president of the aid was introduced by Miss Thomas, superintendent of York County hospital.

A new member, Miss Mae Patterson, was introduced to the club by the membership convenor, Mrs. Isabelle Garrioch.

It was decided that a ham be shipped overseas to the sister club which the Newmarket B and P club has adopted. Miss Isobel Mitchell is in charge of this project assisted by Mrs. M. B. Seldon. The ingredients for Christmas cakes will also be sent to the English club with each of the local members donating the necessary items.

Mrs. Reta Peever presented a report on the third annual Hal-lowe'en dance which the club is sponsoring at the Newmarket high school on Friday, October 27. Don Gilkes' orchestra will provide the music and a buffet lunch will be served.

Future dinner meetings of the Newmarket club will begin at 6.45 instead of 7.30 as they have to date.

H.S. ASS'N MEETING TO BE TOLD ABOUT VISUAL AIDS

The Newmarket Home and School Association will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 24, at 8 p.m. in the agricultural board rooms, Botsford St. (over Geer and Byers). The meeting will be under the direction of the audio-visual aids committee headed by Mrs. B. L. Sinclair.

Mrs. W. G. Allen will speak on the sight saving classes which are held in Toronto. Mrs. Allen, who is an occasional teacher, has herself taught in these special classes for children with poor sight.

Mr. J. R. Robinson, General Films Ltd., Toronto, will demonstrate the use of a film strip projector. The film strip is a great asset to the teacher in providing visual assistance in presenting a lesson to the children and has many advantages over the regular moving pictures. The film which will be shown will be related to the proper care of the eyes.

It has been arranged for a town bus to be at the hall at the close of the meeting and will make one trip on the regular route.

Parents and teachers are extended a special invitation to attend this meeting which is open to the public as are all meetings of the association. The annual membership fees of 35 cents may be paid at this meeting.

FRIENDS SHOWER SEPTEMBER BRIDE

A miscellaneous shower was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brillinger, bride and groom of September 30, at the home of Mrs. Orval Brillinger, R. R. 3, Newmarket, on Wednesday, Oct. 11. About 35 friends and members of the Free Methodist church, Newmarket, gathered for the occasion and a delightful evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Brillinger, the former Verna McMillen, Queensville, received many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

MAY DAY RECALLED

Isn't it queer how a chance word may recall to your mind things you had not remembered for some time? You do not say that you have forgotten, only that you have not thought about them for quite a while.

It was so with me—a chance word sent my memory spinning back to a year spent in New Westminster, B.C., and how I enjoyed all the "pomp and circumstance" connected with the celebration of May Day in that delightful old-time city. It is an annual affair and is celebrated year after year until it has become an institution like the Mardi Gras celebration in New Orleans.

New Westminster, as you no doubt know, is called "The Royal City" and the English custom of celebrating May Day has, these last long years, become a tradition, and folks flock from everywhere to be present. The day's events include a huge parade to the fair grounds with the May Queen elected every year as the chief attraction, bands galore of course and beautiful colorful floats! At the grounds the day's events include drills and dance demonstrations by high and public school students.

But the real big event is the crowning of the new May Queen by the royal party attendants. It is a very delightful festival and picturesque, and it is all carried through with due ceremony. The queen is chosen annually by the school children, each school presenting a name. Then a draw is made for the new queen and the other candidates become royal attendants.

Children Love It

How the children love it! Thousands of visitors, myself included the year I was there, crowd into the grandstand to watch the drills and the modern and medieval dances—and the very specially lovely May-pole dance. There were ever so many gaily decorated May-poles with 20 or more dancers. I expect you all have seen a May-pole dance—there are as many colored ribbons as dancers, attached to the top of the pole, and the boys and girls dressed in gay colors each hold a ribbon, the girls facing one way and the boys the other. Then, when the music starts, they weave in and out, winding the ribbons all down the pole; then when all are as close to the pole as comfort permits, they reverse and unwind it again.

The queen is naturally the centre of attraction at the May Day ball given in the evening—climaxing a long day of keen excitement from the parade in the morning to the happy ending in the evening. I know I had a most delightful time. In the evening we danced to perfect music on a splendid dance floor.

I was with a group of young friends and we were supposed to dance with the children, which we did, of course—and the evening fled away as if on wings. In fact, the whole delightful day seemed extra short, and no wonder for it was an eye-opener for me from the east to see how all and sundry united to have a thoroughly good time, and to above all see that the children enjoyed it to the full!

Hard Work, Planning

No wonder New Westminster's May Day still lives so vividly in my memory. Like Mardi Gras in New Orleans, the May Day celebration at New Westminster must involve a good deal of preliminary hard work for someone—why, the costumes alone must have meant weeks of loving labor for somebody! And the master of ceremonies, I recall, had held that same position for many years and had carried it through so successfully. Yes, it is an annual event and well worth seeing or I'd not have remembered it all so vividly all these years, would it? The long stretch of perfect green lawn in front of the grandstand at Queen's Park and the children putting on such a wonderful show—and of course, tradition played a part for it dates back to Queen Elizabeth's time and was first performed on England's village greens.

From the time the opening gun was fired—a cannon, I should say, to wake up the children in the morning so none would oversleep, the long, beautiful parade through the streets to Queen's Park where the crowning of the new queen took place and the "revels" of the afternoon to the May Queen's banquet and ball, there was not a dull moment. Year after year it is celebrated with each year a new May Queen so that the honor goes around. May Day celebration is to me a beautiful memory and New Westminster will always remain in my thoughts as the city where it is held.

Prize winners in the euchre were: ladies' first, Mrs. Wes Longhurst; ladies' lone hand, Mrs. Wm. Young, Jr.; ladies' consolation, Mrs. Orval Hisey; men's first, Mr. Wes Longhurst; men's lone hand, Mr. John Fraser; men's consolation, Mr. Orval Hisey.

Prize winners in the cribbage were: ladies' first, Mrs. Tom Surgeoner; ladies' consolation, Mrs. Morris Winters; men's first, Mr. William LaParde; men's consolation, Mr. Bob Benville.

The draw for the quilt was won by Mrs. Rawn.

B. AND P. CLUB PLANS INTER-CLUB COUNCIL

Miss Norine Ayers, vice president of the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club, attended a recent meeting at the office of Mrs. Ethel Armstrong-Collins, Toronto, as a delegate from the local club. The purpose of the meeting was to form an inter-club council for this district.

Business and Professional Women's clubs, which will participate in the council, are from Stouffville, Markham-Unionville, Willowdale, Lansing, Richmond Hill, Aurora, Brampton and Newmarket.

It is planned that bi-monthly meetings will be held with the president and vice president from each club attending. The aim of the council will be to create greater unity among the clubs with the council providing a ready exchange of ideas.

KETTLEBY W.A. HEARS OF WORK IN B.C. MISSION

The special meeting of the Women's Association of the Kettleby United church was held in the hall October 10, with the president, Mrs. Anson McCluskie, presiding. The guest speaker was Mrs. Gordon Hunter of Schomberg who told a few of the experiences and difficulties she and her husband encountered in the Caribou, B.C., home mission field.

She stressed the need for contributing to the M. and M. fund. Mrs. Hunter's message was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. D. Ray gave the treasurer's report and expressed the appreciation of both her and her husband for the new cupboards built in the parsonage. Mrs. Burns reported on the semi-annual meeting she and Mrs. D. Ray, Mrs. A. McCluskie, Mrs. F. Curtis and Mrs. L. Heacock attended on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at Victoria Square United church.

Mrs. R. Marshall played "The Lord's Prayer" on the piano. A delicious supper was served by

A. V. BURLING WEDS J. W. MACKEIGAN

Audrey Viola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burling, Newmarket, and Mr. John William MacKeigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacKeigan, Donkin, N.S., were married in Trinity United church, Newmarket, on October 7 amid a setting of fall flowers. Rev. H. Cotton performed the ceremony. Mr. Norman W. Hurrie played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in white slipper satin with beatha collar and train. Her fingertip veil fell from a seed pearl halo and she carried a cascade of red roses and white 'mums. The bride's sister, Mrs. H. MacKenzie, as matron of honor, and Miss Betty MacKenzie, as bridesmaid, wore gowns of coca brown and olive green, styled similarly to the bride's and carried nosegays.

Susan Burling, niece of the bride, as junior bridesmaid, in pink, carried a basket of flowers. Karen Burling and Pat MacKenzie, flower girls, wore pink gowns and carried small baskets of flowers. Best man was Mr. Herb Shepard, brother-in-law of the groom, and ushers were Messrs. Floyd Burling, brother of the bride, and Peter MacKeigan, brother of the groom.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 2 Simco St. W., where the bride's mother received in a navy suit with corsage of pink roses, assisted by the groom's sister in a multicolored dress with corsage of white 'mums. For travelling to Buffalo the bride chose an apricot suit, black accessories and corsage of bronze 'mums. They will reside in Toronto. Among the guests from a distance were the groom's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence MacKeigan, Donkin, N.S.

DRAW WIN SPARKS ANOTHER PROJECT

Mrs. M. B. Seldon won the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club draw on the White Collar doll dressed in 25 one dollar bills. The draw was held at the October 16 meeting at the King George hotel. Mrs. C. E. Blossdale, one of the club's guests, made the draw.

After being presented with the doll, Mrs. Seldon returned the $25 to the club with the suggestion that the money be used to purchase a turkey and chicken on which a draw could be held by the club before Christmas. The suggestion was unanimously adopted with Mrs. E. Rank donating a Christmas cake to be added to the draw.

Further details regarding this money raising project for the Newmarket club will be given later.

JR. LADIES' AID MEETING OBSERVES THANKSGIVING

The Junior Ladies' Aid, Christian Baptist church, Newmarket, regular monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robt. Dick, Second St., October 10, at 8 p.m. This was the Thanksgiving meeting. Devotionals were in the charge of Mrs. J. McArthur.

The program included Thanksgiving music and singing of hymns; a reading by Mrs. McArthur; paper on "Abounding in Thanksgiving" by Mrs. Bohmer Groves; prayer by Mrs. F. Breckon. Business session was in the charge of Mrs. A. Kirbyson. At the close of the evening lunch was served by Mrs. Dick, Mrs. Wm. Epworth, Mrs. W. Townsley, Miss Eria Sommerville and Mrs. Roy Gibson.

Specialty hockeyists Elect Chas. VanZant

The Office Specialty is ready to get up and go when the curtain goes up on the town league hockey activity. That's the word from the cabinetmakers' inner circle. Last week the election of officers was held. Charles VanZant was elected president, Pete Neufeld, secretary-treasurer and A. H. Topham, manager. Dick Waller has been chosen to coach the team with Aub Rae assistant coach.

Ready and rarin' to go Say town ice champs

The Newmarket Merchants, who last year rolled to the town league hockey championship with only one defeat to explain, are ready at the word "go" to defend their laurels. The club met last Friday for a discussion of plans for the coming season and election of officers.

Alex. Eves was named president for the season. Aubrey Smith and Harry "Pop" Holmes were named vice presidents. Bruce Greig was chosen secretary-treasurer. Geo. Hudson was unanimous choice for manager while Bob McCabe was named coach for this season. All but three of last year's championship band are ready for a return to the hockey wars, it was stated.

Haskett's HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Nothing wrong with our question and answer service this week! We have the answer ready before the question is popped. Every year, for umpteen or more years, Newmarket and Aurora hockey moguls have been giving us a stock reply, "Oh, you're too late, have our schedule drawn up".

Well this year, so help me, think we have 'em beaten. We file our usual request and no doubt our southern publicist, Ab Hulse, will join us: "Why, oh why, don't you guys get together and set aside different home nights for your shelligah swinging?"

If our mental arithmetic is correct, always costs both sides a few of the paying pew occupiers. So why not do it now before it's too late. Set down your home nights so they don't conflict. If our under the door listening devices are working up to snuff, Aurora "Indians" figure on crashing their opposition after tea on Tuesday. Newmarket junior C's have flung a request at the arena commission for a Wednesday night stake on puck lake. Well, it's not definite they'll have it granted, as Wednesday has always been considered the skaters' evening. The alternate night is Friday.

Both our intermediates and Aurora juniors have been battling each other for Thursday home stands. Now, if one were to give an inch and take Wednesday everyone would be happy including the treasurers. What you say, men? Any chance of getting together and straightening out this side of the hockey struggles before it's too late?

Shut the door, they're coming through the windows. Where oh where have all these hockey players been hiding? Must be close to 100 for a trial run with "Hack" Cain and the Aurora junior B's. Joe Peat has close to 35 ready to skate as Newmarket assays a comeback in the junior picture. Biggest problem facing Frank Johnston, Clarence Sainsbury and John Hines and local junior executives is what grouping we get. They're hoping it doesn't entail long hauls to Collingwood, Lindsay or some such far away place. Something should be known on this phase this week as manager John Hines has a date to do some nosing around the O.H.A. offices for advance information.

Defrauded, yes sir, expected to get our peepers on both Aurora and Newmarket's intermediate entries over the weekend. Didn't materialize. Ice here Sunday but after one practice found not enough to carry on with junior and intermediate so first runs cancelled. Aurora didn't come through with its expected ice for Sunday either.

Rumor everywhere that there'll be many changes in the roster of both teams. Harold Rogers still is silent. Most we can get out of the chief is "You can quote us as saying we're an hour ahead of you right now and we're figuring on staying there". Of course he's referring to the fact Aurora is on daylight saving and he'll have a good deal of trouble following out the tail end of his threat.

Specialty fete team Players get 'breakers' The Town League softball season was given its final heave ho into oblivion on Saturday. The Office Specialty softballers, Town League champions, were fete'd in Toronto Saturday by the management of the Office Specialty Company. The team made the trip to the city by bus to attend the afternoon junior A double-header at the Maple Leaf Gardens. Following the games, the team swung over to the Westminster Arms Hotel for an enjoyable supper.

At the start of the safari, each member of the team was presented with a windbreaker of wine with grey trimming suitably adorned with a crest indicating the team was Newmarket Town League champions over the past season. A. H. Topham, team manager, in the absence of G. L. Manning, was master of ceremonies. Executives present were pres. Larry Sheffe, vice pres. Jack Glenn, manager A. H. Topham, sec.-treas. Gordon Pearson, field manager Peter Neufeld, coach Harry Boag.

Players present were Bruce Andrews, John Hisey, Chas. VanZant, Don Burch, Ken Burke, "Dint" Barber, Bill Smith, John Sheddwick, Perc Pemberton, Lowell Waller, Geo. Zogalo, Doug McNern, Ernie Dewberry.

sleight of hand and other acts. The evening closed with a delightful lunch and presentation of prizes. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Doyle for a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. Bill Thompson spent the weekend with his family.

Ask Town League Players report Monday

The town league hockey executives meeting Monday were faced with the problem of bolstering two teams or seeing their four-team set-up go under. Jack Duncan, representing Hoffman, and Bohmer Groves, Davis Leather delegate, reported both their teams were short of playing strength.

The league executive decided on a talent parade next Monday: So here's the agenda for all interested in playing town league hockey this winter: report to the arena next Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. with full equipment. A two-hour practice session for the four teams, Town Merchants, Office Specialty, Davis Leather and Hoffman, has been booked. The executive hopes from the parade to snatch enough new players to give the weak sisters the necessary player help to keep their teams functioning.

Three O.H.A. entries Planned by Aurora

Aurora will ice three O.H.A. teams this winter, is the surprise announcement coming this week. Added to the intermediate and junior B entries already in the hands of the O.H.A. will be a junior D it was learned this week. Members of the executive of juvenile team found that opposition in this rating was lacking in the district and decided to move up into the O.H.A. ranks. It is hoped in this way that a strong league including Sutton, already scheduled for junior D, Newmarket junior C, and a fourth team, possibly from Bradford, will round out a strong circuit. The juvenile executive elected several weeks ago is expected to carry on with O.H.A. D entry.

36 work out for juniors Team executive enlarged

If quantity counts for anything, then Newmarket should wind up with a bang-up junior hockey team. Thirty-six players reported to coach Joe Peat Tuesday at the arena for the initial trial for the junior fledglings. The collection included five netminders, eight defencemen and enough forwards to whittle out a snappy club.

Several changes are reported in the junior executive committee. Added during the past week have been vice president Dr. G. M. Peever and to the executive body, Jim Lloyd, Bob Birrell, Don Fines, Howard Brice, Seneca Cook and Jim Walker. Erby Ruthven, Larry Needler and Harry "Pop" Holmes are also being approached regarding a post on the executive committee.

Practices will continue this week before coach Joe Peat starts cutting his squad down to workable size.

The O.H.A. intermediate hockey show in Aurora is in capable hands. The Indians, Aurora's representatives, have lined up one of the strongest executives ever to guide the destinies of an Aurora intermediate team. Practically every industry in town is represented on the executive body.

The slate of officers announced this week begins with Mayor Alex Bell, Hon. W. P. Mulock and H. Greenhalgh, as honorary presidents. President is J. A. "Bert" Mayrand. Three vice-presidents are Cameron Loblaw, Evan Murrell and Douglas Harrison. Secretary-treasurer is Earl A. Scott. Neither Harold Rogers, named manager recently, nor Harvey Gibney, erstwhile Newmarket "Spittfire" selected to coach the team, need any introduction to district hockey fans.

Ray White has signed on as trainer. Dr. D. Hutchins is club physician and club chaplains are Rev. K. D. Watmough and Rev. M. R. Lynett. Directors of the club are Gordon Hoffman, T. A. M. "Ab" Hulse, Wm. Stollery, A. R. Valleeau, James Brown, Don Rogers, Frank Rutherford, Hugh Cousins and Joseph Castles. Possibilities are that the number of directors will be increased over the coming week.

Something more will be added to complete the new look. Aurora will leave behind the traditional colors of yellow and black for blue and white. Another feature too will be the fact the team will be modelling an Aurora product every time they take the ice. The sweaters will bear a "Made in Aurora" tag, they were supplied by Aurora Textiles.

Manager Rogers says he won't be giving away any secrets in saying a large turn-out is expected at the first practice sessions. Practice rounds will commence as soon as ice is available at the Aurora arena with a Sunday work-out practically assured.

HOME FROM HOLIDAYS
Mr. Fleming Young, Newmarket, returned this week from a few days' holiday at Long Lake near Algonquin Park.

NEW GRAIN KING OF ONTARIO

New wheat king of Ontario is Harry G. Strang, shown with his son, Gordon. He sowed two bushels of seed, obtained from the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ont., over two acres and obtained 722 bushels to the acre, a phenomenal record. He has sold part of his crop as seed grain and expects that many neighbors around Hensall, Ont., will be growing record crops next year.

384 pay to skate As rink opens for season

Full impact of the fact that Newmarket is no longer dependent on the whims of Jack Frost was evident Wednesday night as the doors of the arena swung open for public skating. Manager Stan Smith reports 384 customers attended the opening.

There will be skating again Saturday afternoon and evening of this week and the season will swing into full stride next week with skating booked for Monday, Wednesday and Saturday nights.

Hockey practices began on Monday evening as the intermediate squad for the coming winter hit the ice lanes. Over 20 were out the first night seeking a position with the team.

Aurora jr. B work-out Rink work proceeding

Rapid strides are being made on the front section of the Aurora arena. The cement block laying of the outside walls has now been completed. The roof rafters are expected to be placed this week. The partitions dividing the dressing rooms on the basement floor have been completed and the second floor containing the coffee bar, lobby and ticket office are now taking shape.

The increased seating capacity at the west end will be six rows high and will accommodate 250 additional seats. Entrance to the arena will be made at the front, coming up steps into the lobby and from there access to the seats will be gained by an areaway approximately four feet wide.

The hydro change-over caused a slight hitch in the plans to have ice by last Sunday. The plant was started on Tuesday and ice is expected today or Friday. Monday and Tuesday, Aurora's junior B team under the coaching eye of Herb Cain held its first work-outs at Stouffville. The intermediates are expected to start practices in Aurora rink on Sunday.

Chas. VanZant re-elected As town loop warms up

If the town league hockey moguls carry out the threats voiced at the annual meeting at the arena, you can look forward to a bigger and better Town Hockey League campaign.

Representatives of the four teams engaged in the scrap last winter were back and all appeared bent on having a go at each other once again. The general

BIRDIE CLUB PLANS FOR ACTIVE SEASON

While hockey seems to be in the spotlight in the sport scene, now that fall is with us, one other sport, catering more to the individual, is also making its annual start. That's badminton.

Members of the Newmarket Badminton club 25 strong held their inaugural get-together Monday at the high school. Taking their cue from the strong representation present, the club took the opportunity to elect the officers for this season.

Florence Callaghan was elected president, Jack Peppiatt first vice president, Ken Peever second vice president and Agnes Gladman, secretary-treasurer.

The club will again enter the York-Simcoe badminton league and will vie with teams from Bradford, Aurora, Richmond Hill and Willowdale for the league championship. League competition is not expected to start until early in November. In the meantime the local over-the-webbing enthusiasts will keep busy with singles and doubles competitions.

Aurora Indians plan Bingo to aid team

Following hard on the heels of the announcement regarding the strong Aurora intermediate hockey club executive comes the word that the team will stage a monster bingo at the Gray Stones on Wednesday, Oct. 25. Starting time has been set for 8 p.m. D.S. T. Gordon Hoffman, in charge of the event, reports the prize list is stupendous and covers about everything under the sun, from furniture, electrical appliances to hams and groceries. These have been donated by Aurora merchants and industries. There is also a grand door prize to complete the picture. All proceeds will be used to assist the hockey club.

idea, so the delegates indicated, is to make an early start.

Charles VanZant was returned as league president for a second term. Four vice-presidents were named, one from each team, Harold Gwyn (Town), Harry Boag (Specialty), Bohmer Groves (Davis Leather) and Bob Benville (Hoffman's). Bill Ingram was elected secretary treasurer.

The inclusion of Mount Albert, Pine Orchard and Queensville in the league was left open for the executive to consider at a further meeting.

Show safety films At Gun club meeting

The Newmarket Rod and Gun club shows that are proving so popular with the outdoor enthusiasts attracted another full house at the town hall Friday. Club president Albert Higginson made the guests welcome in his opening remarks. Various movies stressing forest conservation and safety in the woods during the hunting season were shown through the courtesy of the Department of Lands and Forests. Feature films shown were "Tomorrow's Timber", "Aim for Safety" and "The Whale Hunt".

Mr. Hudson from the Department of Lands and Forests gave a brief address on the theme of safety during the hunting season. Newmarket Citizens' Band under the direction of Bandmaster Bill Greig provided some fine music throughout the evening. The town hall was suitably decorated for the occasion. Bert Morrison's display of hunting loggery and equipment completed the outdoor hunting atmosphere. The Newmarket club plans a repeat event in the not too distant future.

On the alleys

Phyl McInnis, who doubles as captain of the Cubs, set the Town Ladies League on fire Monday, belting the pins for a 691 (199-249-243). Strongest competition came from Claire Pollock with 623. Other fine three-game scores were posted by Mary Osborne 578, Mimi Giovannelli 573, Marian Stark 567, Edith Wilson 543, Annie Stickland 529, and Vi. Gilkes 526. Feeps made the big gain Monday with a 3-1 win over Femmes. Cubs took a 2-1 to 1-1 margin from the Dubs while Wizards and Spark Plugs split. Wizards and Feeps are in front with 8 points, Femmes 7, Cubs 6 1-2, Dubs 3 1-2 and Spark Plugs 3.

Well gals, and maybe it wouldn't do the men any harm to tune in on this, here's a score that's going to take some beating over the season, a 907 made up of games of 353, 234 and 320. The poster of this early season splash was Margaret Callaghan, Monday at the North End Alleys. Going to take some bowling to top that.

Harry Thoms was in a pin spilling mood Wednesday to move ahead of his mates in Davis Leather League last week rolling up a 662 (230-204-228). Len Burling 653, Bud Pettit 647, and Art Bennington 602, were other top three-game marks. Allen's team over Tunney's 5-2 and Townsley's with a like production over Cullen's team in last week's scoring. Tunney has 25, Allen 21, Cullen and Townsley 19 each in the early season standing.

Six went over the 500 mark in Thursday night ladies league. Heading the slate was Helen Tomlinson with 597 (195-169-233). Other fine three-game scores were turned in by Olive Huggison 553, Myrt. Dunn 547, Bessie Wench 541, Ruth Penrose 534 and Emma Broadbent 521.

Not too many taking bows for their scores in Tuesday's Town Men's League sessions. Frank Newton, the ace shot maker, with a 663 (202-220-241). Alvin McKnight's 653 (148-278 277) earned him second rank, that 278 being his single for the evening. Others over six hundred were Bill Dunn 627, Bob Banning 609, and K1 Curtis 608. Metal Workers cashed in on McKnight's and K1 Curtis' steady pinning to sweep Meteors into the gutter 4-0. Dixon's over In-sley's and Turkey Catchers over Newmarket Dairy by 3-1 margins. Very close race as yet. Combines and Metal Workers out front with seven points followed by Legion 6, Hisey's and Meteors 5, Turkey Catchers and Office Specialty 4, Newmarket Dairy and Clover Kickers 3, In-sley's 2, Denne Electric and Dixon's 1 each.

Class will tell, quoth the Sheet Metalers of the Hoffman circuit. Friday they plastered Vorlone 7-0. That shot the Metalers into a 10 point advantage in the league race. They have 25 points, Press Shop 15, Machine Shop 12, Office and Vorlone 9 each. Office downed Press Shop 5-2 in the other Friday action. Bob Wallace captured high three honors with 664 (256 single). Keith Davis was No 2 shotmaker with 629 followed by Bob Benville 621, Frank Daniels 613 and Allen Daniels 603.

The Thursday Night Ladies have come up with by-lines for their teams - that rates 100% endorsement from the press. It's Pinheads with Laura Whitfield captain, Alley Cats, Grace Osmond captain, Pinafors Margaret Teasdale captain. High three honors were captured by Eva Whitfield last week with a 559. Margaret Teasdale 231, Clara Stark 229 and Eva Whitfield 228 topped the single game highs.

Ernie Bennitz compiled a 650 (238-206-206) to pace the scorers in the Office Specialty Office Staff league. Gordon Manning topped the single game marks with 246 followed by Herb Hugo 231 and Tommy Scott 221. Ken Gib's team is in front with 8 points, Lou Bovair's six are second with six, followed by Geo. Phimister 5, Roy Bennett 5, Don Burch and Bert Seldon 4 each.

Aurora Lions addressed By Rev. K. D. Watmough

"The relationship of the church to industry and business" was the subject Rev. K. D. Watmough chose as guest speaker at the open dinner meeting of Aurora Lions club last week. He was introduced by Dr. E. J. Henderson and thanked by A. E. L. Maughan. A colored film on "How shoes are made", from the public relations bureau of the Shoe Manufacturers' Association, was shown by Ross Linton. John Morning, chairman in charge of the meeting, was assisted by Cameron Loblaw and Dr. Henderson.

HOLLAND LANDING

Miss Grace Gordon, Toronto, was a weekend guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Gordon.

Anniversary services in the United church will be held on Sunday, Oct. 29, at 2.45 and 7.30 standard time. Further notice next week.

Mr. Peter Walker spent the weekend with his son at Bowmanville.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Riches, Toronto, spent Sunday with Mrs. S. Cook, Gordon and Billie.

The Women's Association is preparing for a bazaar to be held in November. Watch for date later.

On Sunday next, Oct. 22, some of the senior members of a boys' choir from Toronto will sing in the United church. Service will be at 2.45. Anyone having heard the boys sing will be anxious to hear them again. Everyone welcome.

Mr. Cecil Brittain attended the school convention held at Ottawa last weekend.

Mrs. Hamm, Stouffville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. C. Brittain, and children.

The quaffle? It's 112 pounds of fish, a measure still used in Newfoundland.

Pictured at work in the Hart plant, Aurora, is Harry Adams. Almost blind after four years in a Japanese prison camp during the war, he insists on the same treatment accorded his fellow workers.

STUBBORN YOUNG MAN

Four years a prisoner Overcomes handicaps

When a young man is stubborn, it takes more than the physical handicaps derived from four years in a Japanese prison camp to keep him down.

Harry Adams, Aurora, has less than ten percent vision, is very hard of hearing and is still sometimes pretty shaky on his legs. But Harry Adams is a stubborn young man. He is determined he'll pay his own way despite physical difficulties which would floor a lesser man. And he is doing just that.

He is working at the Hart Manufacturing plant—has been ever since A. W. Wilson, personnel manager, was told about him. Mr. Wilson gave him the job but made it plain that there would be no special considerations given Harry, once he learned his work.

This was fine by Harry. He didn't want it any other way. He was determined to beat the handicaps of his war service. He was, perhaps, a bit slower to learn the operations of the machines to which he was assigned than would have been a person without his handicaps but once he got the swing of the drill presses and punches, he kept pace with his fellow workers.

Harry carries his determination to lead as normal a life as possible to his home. He boards with an Aurora family, walks all over town, goes fishing with his mates from the factory. His hearing is too poor for him to listen to the radio but he likes to chat with his fellow veterans.

Harry wants, some day, to have a business of his own and his friends believe that since he is such a stubborn man, he is going to have his own business.

News of the W.I.
In North York

News for this column must be in the office Monday night. Copy must be written as briefly as possible and confined to news and reports. Other than routine reports and announcements will be printed separately.

Union Street branch met at the home of Mrs. Walter Rose Tuesday afternoon. There were 19 members present and six visitors. Mrs. Archie Sedore was appointed to represent the institute on the Queensville park board. An invitation was accepted to attend a rally at Belhaven hall on October 25 for all institutes in this district.

It was decided to have another cooking class in January, further particulars later. Mrs. Archie Sedore was appointed as delegate to the convention in Toronto November 1, 2, 3. Mrs. Armstrong gave a very interesting account of the P. W. I. O. delegates representing Canada at the International Congress of the Associated Country Women of the World at Copenhagen.

Mrs. Hodgins, from the Elmhurst branch told of her first plane trip from Toronto to Vancouver and return. The meeting closed with the National Anthem followed by a dainty lunch.

The regular meeting of the Lakeside branch will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Hobson on Tuesday, Oct. 24. The roll call is "A Successful New Canadian" and Mrs. R. Serrick will give a paper on citizenship and education. A good attendance of members is hoped for and visitors are cordially welcomed at all meetings.

The Mount Albert branch was guest of the Zephyr branch on Wednesday and provided a good program, then afternoon tea was served by the Zephyr ladies. A pleasant social hour was spent by all.

Mount Albert Woman's Institute met in the town hall on Thursday afternoon for a business meeting. Their first Community Card Party will be in the hall on Thursday, Nov. 2, and they will also hold their Annual Community Party on Halloween night as usual with prizes for costumes for all ages.

Mrs. W. Rate and Mrs. H. Harmon are expected to be delegates to the Central Ontario convention in Toronto in November. After this part of the meeting, the members were taken to Newmarket and shown through the Dixon Penit plant. It proved a very interesting trip as one learned a great deal in seeing the making of pencils and crayons and the ladies were very grateful to those who explained and showed them everything. Then the ladies went on to the home of Mrs. Howard Morton and had afternoon tea and a nice visit with their hostess.

The Gormley branch will meet at the home of Mrs. H. Moorby on Wednesday, Oct. 25. This is the month for our bulb and potted plant sales so be sure and not forget to bring your contribution. Also this is the meeting that we all bring the gift for our adopted child in France. He is five years old. Mrs. Harry Smith will bring us up to date on the province of British Columbia and Mrs. Biddlecombe will tell us all about the wildflower, spotted touch-me-not. Home Economics and Health in the charge of Mrs. Jack Leary is on the program for this meeting. Gazette, Mrs. Jack Gamble. Mrs. Moorby will provide the rest of the program and the hostesses are Mrs. Meredith Ash and Mrs. H. Biddlecombe. Everybody welcome.

Snowball branch will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Cain on Wednesday, Oct. 25. Roll-call, "Name a flower beginning with the first letter of your given name". A talk by Miss Helen Boycroft on our better homes and gardens. Piano selections by Cora Morning and Jack Cain. Hostesses: Mrs. C. Copson, Mrs. Reddick, Mrs. Patrick and Miss Joan Hall.

AURORA H.S. ASS'N HEARS TALK ON VISUAL AIDS

Ninety Aurora parents heard last week a former Aurora high school student, Mrs. Molly Yorke, convenor of visual aids and theatre, Ontario Federation of Home and School Associations, speak on how visual education in the schools can be used for teaching safety.

Mr. Beyers of the Ontario Safety League showed a film, "Worth the Risk", which was followed by a quiz period and a lively discussion about Aurora traffic hazards. Mr. Beyers felt that a lot of the troubles voiced at the meeting about double parking and speed could be cleared up by sending a delegation to council.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Harold Clarke and thanked by Mr. W. Adams who well remembered Mrs. Yorke as a former pupil of his. Mrs. E. H. Stollz conducted the meeting. "Aims and Ideals" was read by Mrs. J. B. Bastedo and Mrs. J. M. Emmons acted as accompanist.

OUR DUTY TO HELP

Oak Ridges group hears
Aurora Hospital director

"It is a pitiful thing nature has given us the mentally defective but there is a place for them. As a Christian country, it is the duty of the home and the community to help such persons become useful," Dr. W. R. Reddick, head of the mental hospital, Aurora, told Oak Ridges Home and School Association at the monthly meeting held in the school October 10.

"The public in its growing consciousness of a program for mental health must stand behind the hospitals which can do nothing without public understanding," he said. The time will come, he thinks, when mental health clinics will be established.

There are men in our midst, he said, who devote their lives to the study of defectives. There are those who do nothing but study the brain cell "and who can tell but in the far distant future science may understand the brain cell to the extent that there will be movement toward some restoration of the mentally defective to normalcy."

The essential factor in helping such persons is "routine habit training", whether in the hospital or the home. The speaker said education of the parent to appreciate the basis of routine training for the defective child is all important. "God has placed them here. The responsibility rests not on the so-afflicted. Judgment falls upon those who fail to take care of them."

From the Aurora hospital, Dr. Reddick brought five boys before the association representing distinct types of the mentally defective. Happy and obedient, they responded readily to the informal questioning of the doctor, who explained the background, and history of each case. Differing slightly in their sub-normal intelligence, each displayed characteristics peculiar to his type. Physical differences were apparent, but in all, they demonstrated clearly the influence of routine training and the pleasantness of the hospital environment it is their happy lot to experience. Good food, supervision and the love and affection these boys receive was a revelation to the lay person outside the realm of any association with the mental defective.

"The hospital grounds at Aurora will be made a beauty spot for these kids and the recreation facilities will be improved," Dr. Reddick stated.

Mrs. Stewart Acheson, president of the Oak Ridges Home and

School, was chairman of the meeting. She introduced the "penny tea pot" as a means of obtaining pennies or silver collection at regular meetings. A system to increase attendance of teachers and parents was established. In response to the roll-call one mark is given to the teacher in attendance, one to the mothers and two to the fathers. The marks are tallied monthly by class grades. A class-room picture of a Canadian Art Series has been donated by Mrs. G. O. Gamble, which will decorate the wall of the class room holding the high mark of the month. At the end of the year, the picture will go to the grade obtaining the top total for permanent possession.

Mrs. W. H. Hulme, the program convenor for October, introduced Dr. Reddick.

BROWNHILL COUPLE
40TH ANNIVERSARY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos York, Brownhill, was the scene of a happy occasion recently when they celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. Present were five sons and five daughters, wives and husbands and 11 grandchildren. The youngest grandchild was 11-month-old Loraine Abbs. There were 40 present for the anniversary supper and Mrs. York received the guests in a black crepe dress with sequin trim and corsage of tea roses and baby's breath.

Many lovely gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. York and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morley York, who had an anniversary on Thanksgiving Day. Mr. and Mrs. A. York also received flowers from several who were unable to attend, among them a large pot of baby's breath from nieces and nephews in Toronto and a bouquet of roses and baby's breath from Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Johnson.

After supper friends and neighbors came for the evening and were entertained by Mrs. Garfield Johnson and son of King township with a record player and guitar. Mr. Andrew Stevenson played violin solos and called for square dancing. Seventy-five were present and an enjoyable time was spent.

Milk is well-protected by Aluminum

An Inside Story

1. The nourishing glass of milk from Grandma is the happy ending to this story. It started when Nature put aluminum in the earth itself. That is why this important mineral is right in the milk we drink.

2. And Nature gave aluminum qualities that make it ideal in contact with food. Many milk pails... many parts of modern milking machines are made of aluminum.

3. From farm to dairy... from country to city... rich, wholesome Canadian milk is being increasingly carried in aluminum containers to reach you fresh and pure.

4. And to cap it all, many bottles of milk are protected with shining aluminum foil tops. Aluminum assures cleanliness for this most sensitive of all foods.

No other material is more "food-friendly" than aluminum. Whenever you see aluminum on the outside of a food or a drink, there's an "inside story" of perfectly protected flavour, quality and purity.

THE HOMEMAKERS

Desserts for Autumn

There are some people who are satisfied with a meal which has no sweet to top it off, but they are unusual. Most homemakers are greeted daily by the homecoming members of their families with the cry, "What's for dessert?"

With cooler weather the heavier desserts such as hot batter puddings and pastries take their places on the menu again. Custards and light fluffy desserts are acceptable all year round, particularly for the children.

SNOWBALL PUDDING

1-3 cup shortening
2-3 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. almond extract
1 1/2 cups sifted pastry flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 cup milk
3 egg whites
1-3 cup sugar

Cream shortening with the 2-3 cup of sugar. Add flavoring. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder and add alternately with milk to the creamed mixture. Make a meringue of egg whites and the 1-3 cup sugar and fold into batter. Fill individual greased moulds 2-3 full. Cover tightly with waxed or brown paper and steam 1-2 hour. Serve hot with fruit sauce. Yield: 8 individual moulds.

APPLE PANCAKES

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. soda
1 1/2 tsp. sugar

1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup buttermilk
2 tbsps. shortening, melted
1 egg
1/2 cup raw apple, peeled and grated
Mix and sift flour, soda, sugar and salt. Add buttermilk and melted shortening to well-beaten eggs and stir quickly into dry ingredients, mixing until smooth. Stir in grated apple. Drop by spoonfuls on a hot griddle or lightly-greased frying pan. Cook until bubbles form on the top and edges are cooked. Turn and cook on the other side. Serve immediately. Yield: 12 medium sized (4") pancakes.

Note: 1/2 cup sweet milk plus 2 tbsps. white vinegar may be substituted for 1 cup buttermilk.

SQUASH PUDDING

2 cups cooked, sieved squash
2 cups milk
2 eggs
3-4 cup brown sugar
2 tbsps. melted butter
1-4 tsp. ginger
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1-8 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup raisins

Mix squash with milk, strain, add well beaten eggs, sugar, melted butter, spices, salt and raisins. Beat well. Pour into a greased baking dish, set in a pan of hot water and oven-poach in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 35 minutes. Chill. Yield: six servings.

YOUNG HOPEFULS BY DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Peter's woes are clothes

Peter, six years old, is the subject of insulting remarks due to his careless grooming.

Peter has just started to school and the other little boys and girls in his room make fun of him because he is different. His difference is simply a matter of extremely poor grooming. Although some of the other children have soiled hands, ruffled hair or clothes in need of repair—none are as outstandingly in need of all over care as Peter.

With him, his unkempt appearance is not occasional as in the instances of most of the other children, but constant.

Lack of buttons sometimes makes it difficult for Peter to keep on his shirt. Although there is an obvious button on his shorts, the buttonhole is so large that this method of fastening requires frequent attention. A very large safety pin had been substituted.

Soap and water would make such a difference to Peter's appearance. Even a comb through his hair once a day would eliminate the matted tangles.

There were so many comments regarding a fair-sized hole in the seat of Peter's pants that eventually a safety pin was used to pull the cloth together.

Although it doesn't seem to bother Peter to be the subject of remarks pertaining to his person, it doesn't seem fair to the lad to subject him to ridicule that could be so easily avoided. It isn't as if his parents were overburdened with work or were financially destitute. It seems that they don't realize their child is at a disadvantage simply because he hasn't any visible signs of grooming.

For Peter's sake, it is to be hoped that somebody starts caring enough to do something about his appearance.

SHOPPING WITH BETTY

Nine weeks to Christmas shop

By BETTY BRAMMER

Hardly seems possible but it's only nine weeks until Christmas. Christmas cards being shown in the stores in Newmarket are really beautiful and there are cards for every taste. Just now the gift and china shops have quite a stock of things to start your Christmas shopping early this year and avoid the rush.

For brisk, bright fall days what could be nicer and more suitable than a Pic and Pic suit in black and white. The particular one we saw was a size 18 1/2 and featured curved detail on the pockets and shoulders. The skirt was slim, made comfortable for walking by pleats front and back.

If you're in the market for a fall hat Eve's will have just what you are looking for, be it a felt, velvet or feather chapeau. Two we liked particularly were a white feather off-the-face pillbox spiced with a lacy black veil. A black velvet ribbon to tie at the back draws the veil snugly about the face. Very charming. The other, a very chic hat in black paon velvet, is small and head-hugging with turned up brim. The only adornment, a net-like veil coming to the forehead and curled osprey feathers to the side. This hat is very becoming on anyone with a high forehead.

Hand painted serving or lap trays and kleenex boxes by Johnson are gay and different. The kleenex boxes are in two sizes, regular and chubby, and all are in delightful colors of pink, white, green, blue, gold and black with colorful flowers. It's the Marigold in Newmarket for these. This same shop also features exclusive gift wrap with matching tags suitable for all occasions. Make your next gift package almost too pretty to unwrap.

Time to think of winter coats. We saw a lovely cashmere-soft one in encore red in a Newmarket shop. The coat is adorned with a fairly large grey Persian lamb collar and the sleeves are loose fitting with turnback cuffs. It boasts back interest of belt and pleats and is nicely lined with grey satin.

Many women go through life believing that they're definitely not the creative type. When other people have original ideas or create interesting designs, they explain over them and ruefully wish that they could be as clever. But, actually, the vast majority of women are gifted in this direction, and if they will only give themselves half a chance they will prove it.

You might feel at all clever or inspired just looking at a piece of crepe paper, but just get that same crepe paper in your hands and your mind set on the occasion when it is to be used, and you'll find yourself turning out clever effects in rapid time. If your youngster has to attend a costume party at a day's notice you'll soon find that you can make up something attractive and original in little time. Much as we don't like to admit it, most of us work better under a time limit when we know we have to do something and can't give in to our natural inertia.

Women like to create—their fingers are nimble and skillful—and they thoroughly enjoy the feeling of making articles with their own hands. There's a definite feeling of achievement or accomplishment upon completion of a hand-made item. In this modern industrial period we've grown so accustomed to having our wants and needs supplied by mechanical or outside means that all too seldom do we derive the pleasure that only comes from utilizing our own ideas and talents.

Any of the needlecraft arts gives us this opportunity to try our own skills in making articles for the home, our families or ourselves. Knitting, crocheting, embroidery or sewing all afford pleasure and economical ways of making articles that we would otherwise be forced to buy. These arts also enable us to find outlets for the creative urge instilled in all of us.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving is to me an atmosphere, not a particular time or season set by man.

Have you never felt on a June morning when new life was everywhere clamoring for expression, where nature was writing her promises of beauty and plenty on every hand—that this was the time for Thanksgiving? Or in that strange hush that envelopes the world on snowy starlit Christmas Eves when we see through eyes of faith the unrolling of the wondrous Christmas story.

Mr. Cotton in his sermon recently spoke of being thankful for friends and I wondered how many of us in this busy, chaotic, changing world of ours even take time to remember the friends of long ago—and try to see what, if anything, they had to do with what we are today and by the same token to wonder how much our friends of today color our thoughts and actions.

Do we change, chameleon fashion, just reflect the color of the thoughts of the last person with whom we talked?

My thoughts of Thanksgiving are always mixed up with childish impressions—our beautiful old church in Perth with the light from stained glass windows falling on a chancel colorful with fruit and flowers. And we sang the Thanksgiving hymns and joined in the prayers of Thanksgiving with our eyes full of the concrete evidence of why we are being thankful. The vegetables, at the close of the service, went to some who needed them and the flowers went to the sick.

Did you ever place the things you were thankful for and the things you would like to be thankful for side by side and the next year see if any in the latter category could be transferred to the first?

We have so many big things to be thankful for—for Canada: her bounties of nature, her vast resources of minerals, mines and forest, her people—old and new Canadians learning by trial and error to live and let live—her freedom of speech and religion—although we are not perfect regarding race and creed, and last but not least—peace!

How long to enjoy! How long we will enjoy that peace, no one knows, but let us give thanks that we have had it so long and that we can look south and see our great border with no lurking foes—instead, friends whose friends are our enemies.

At our W.M.S. we heard Mrs. Best tell of the ways the United Church is taking to make new Canadians welcome. Multiply that by all the churches and one sees the role the churches are taking in making Canada a land to be thankful for.

But there are one or two things I'd like to be thankful for and cannot. Do you ever drive peacefully along the highway at night, suddenly to have your peace disturbed by the glare of oncoming headlights? They leave you absolutely in the dark as to where you are and you may be dangerously near a ditch, for we notice these drivers are either on the line or a trifle over on the wrong side. When people are made to tone down these lights, I'll have another cause for thanksgiving.

Then, too, I'd be thankful if we could look every kind of meat in the face and say, without painfully (I speak for myself here) doing a problem in mental arithmetic before turning from this and taking that.

Oh well, one can, we hope, look forward to being thankful for better things in these lines comes another Thanksgiving!

ENTERTAINS AT SHOWER

Mrs. R. McKenzie, Newmarket, entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Marion Moore, a bride-elect of October 21. She was assisted by Mrs. Don Clarkson. The bride received many beautiful and useful gifts. At the close of the evening a delicious lunch was served.

It will be a lucky bride who receives a gift of a Denton china bird. These may be purchased in town at Yates and are hand-modelled of best bone china. The larger ones at $15 are lovebirds on a limb and are beautifully made. Smaller size bluebirds are $8 and $7. A grand gift for someone on your list who "has everything!"

A party-going frock is in back-drop (blue-grey) velvet with self-covered buttons to below the waist. The neckline is a low, scalloped scoop and it is practically sleeveless with gathering on the shoulder. The skirt is medium full with a stitched-on peplum effect on the front. A rich looking dress, particularly under lights.

A tip from Betty: After removing a woollen garment carefully brush, air and hang up properly and let rest for 24 hours. This will remove minor wrinkles.

C-I-L SPONGE

Just after you've washed your car! Cheer up! You can wash it again so easily—simply by sponging it with the brand new, grand new C-I-L SPONGE. Ask if your husband is the Official Car-Washer in your family, I'm sure he'll agree with me that this C-I-L cellulose sponge is the grandest thing ever invented for cleaning or polishing a car. It's velvet-soft when wet—kind to the finest finish. And when dry, it can be used as a chamois. There are lots of other things you'll like about this durable C-I-L sponge... why not try it and find out for yourself? You'll find C-I-L Sponges in five convenient sizes at hardware, drug, variety, department or grocery stores. Be sure to look for the C-I-L label—it's your assurance of quality.

I'm Really Thrilled

and you'll be too, when you see the FRIGIDAIRE De Luxe Cold-Wall REFRIGERATOR. It's so beautiful with its Ice-Blue interior trim... and so wonderful "in action." For example, its big, full-width Super-Freezer Chest holds up to 45 lbs. of frozen foods... while its huge Hydrator keeps fruits and vegetables fresh and crisp for days. Look twice at those roomy, all-aluminum shelves, too... for they're slip-proof, rust-proof and edged with Ice-Blue. Yes, "made by General Motors" means a lot in electric refrigerators... so visit your Frigidaire Dealer soon, for the thrill of your life!

I Like To Tell You Success Stories about favourite buywords of mine.

The Success Story of RED ROSE TEA AND COFFEE began with an ideal of quality—so that now the Red Rose name means flavour perfection in thousands of Canadian homes! And I know you'll agree with the "Red Rose Tea" that Red Rose Tea is good tea—from the moment you taste that very first, flavourful sip! Remember, too, that because it's good tea, it actually gives more cups to the pound—its flavour goes a long, long way! Red Rose Coffee is as good as Red Rose Tea. Always fresh—always flavourful—once you've tasted this full-bodied coffee, you'll never be satisfied with any other! So do ask your grocer for these Red Rose successes—the flavour-wise tea—the taste-satisfying coffee. I'm sure you'll make a year-round, clock-around habit of them!

and all the family snuggles around the fire, I like to serve a piping hot chocolate drink. And I don't know of anything more wonderful than BAKER'S UNSWEETENED CHOCOLATE for a drink full of nourishment and luxurious chocolate flavour. Baker's is, of course, all pure chocolate with nothing added, nothing taken away, making all chocolate flavoured dishes more rich and satisfying. Here's the recipe for Hot Chocolate that would make a French chef green with envy!

2 squares Baker's Unsweetened chocolate
1 cup water
Add chocolate to water in top of double boiler. Stir over low heat till melted and blended. Add sugar and salt, boil minutes, stirring constantly. Place over boiling water. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly, then beat. Just before serving, beat with egg beater till frothy. Serves 4.

No Fuss—no bother at all!

It's as easy as making a DURHAM CORN STARCH Lemon Pie to open the new "Durham" package! Just break the seal and inside you'll find Durham Corn Starch neatly protected in a paper bag. Then, when you've used as much "Durham" as you need at the time, replace the top of the package. It will protect your corn starch from dust 'til the next time you need it. And for the best Lemon Pie recipe you've ever tried—Just look at the side of the "Durham" package. There you'll find a special Ann Adam Lemon Pie recipe... delicious!

The twinkling, shimmering colours of Jell-O are a sure sign of the tempting flavour that follows. And the variety of flavours makes Jell-O JELLY POWDERS a homemaker's dessert and saved dream—they offer such a wealth of glamorous combinations. I don't forget Jell-O economy when I'm planning the budget, either. It offers one of the most inexpensive desserts I know of—less than 2¢ a serving!

THE COMMON BOND

They were a happy couple when they walked down the street in Mapleville, people smiled and said "Don't they look happy!" He wasn't making much money but he was ambitious, and a hard worker. They spent modestly, saved a little for the time when a young 'un would arrive. Then one day he got a raise. That was the day when he had to make a decision.

There were so many things they wanted, a house, a car, and the little luxuries that made life worth living. But Junior—they had to think of his future, too. That was what got them interested in Canada Savings Bonds. They were the ideal way to make that extra savings and they could be bought at the Branch of the Dominion Bank for cash, or... under a Monthly Savings plan... such a small amount each month, too... meant that they could start on a bond and still have some left over for themselves. So they kept adding to their savings... and bought themselves a Canada Savings Bond and some day... they'll be glad.

Visit your Branch of the Dominion Bank, and arrange for a Canada Savings Bond—soon
